

A New Understanding of Peace

“Today I will bring you a new understanding of My peace. I see the tension in your heart, the pressure around you and the pain within you. I will lighten your load as you rest in Me. The load you carry I will carry for you. Give me the pressures you feel to perform, to meet the expectations of others. Give them all to Me...My life in you is the source of your peace. There is no striving when My life conquers your soul. The emotions of your heart become gateways for My life to pour forth. Let your heart rest this day in the assurance of My love. All that delights Me, I see in you. All the expectations you have placed upon yourself, place upon Me. I will fulfill every longing and every expectation of your heart.”<sup>2</sup>
