

Blank Cheque Promise

5 February 2016

“On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, in front of the king's quarters, while the king was sitting on his royal throne inside the throne room opposite the entrance to the palace. And when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she won favour in his sight, and he held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. Then Esther approached and touched the tip of the sceptre. And the king said to her, “What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you, even to the half of my kingdom.”” (Esther 5:1-3)

The words “What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you...” kept playing in my mind. Then I heard Father say to me, “This is a blank cheque that I want my people to know, I have told you many times about this blank cheque”. I said to Father, “How can it be, this is too good to be true, am I hearing things?” Father answered me, “This is my invitation to my people, to everyone, to let me know of their needs, their desires so I can do it for them”. I interjected, “Too good to be true Lord! In my world, from my experience, nothing comes for free; we’ve got to at least earn it”. He then said, “This is my invitation to my people to see my goodness and my power. I want to let them know that I love them, that I’m for them and with them. Tell my people to tell me their needs. Tell them to absolutely trust me.”

I sensed Father’s deep love and compassion for humanity. I sensed also that He knows our predicament and He wants to help us to restore our faith in Him. I believe in my heart that this is the season of recovery and restoration.

I sensed that God wanted His promise to be shared freely and widely. I also sensed the importance and the urgency of this promise.

The ‘blank cheque’ invitation is for everyone and anyone who has ears to hear and be willing to receive this promise of Father and believe with their whole heart.

OTHER RELATED REVELATIONS

Love

God loves us immensely, unconditionally and extravagantly. His perfect love perfects us. We don’t need to strive, but we are to rest in His love. He expects us to walk in Love, and as Love, because our faith is working through Love.

There is a difference between knowing God’s love for us and allowing Him to love us. The second one enables us to know and accept who we are. This is very important because as a result of knowing and accepting who we are, we are then able to love ourselves. Then we can be as one with Him.

When we walk as one with Him, we know what we want. What we want is no longer corrupted by our old nature. And what we want is also what He wants.

Because we are one with Him, what He wants, He puts in our hearts to become our desires. His desires become our desires.

We are to express God’s desires to mankind. He longs to have these manifested to mankind. Therefore, if we are one with Him, His desires become ours and our desires become His, we are partners with Him. As a result, it is no surprise that God gives us the ‘blank cheque’.

Without Condition

Some of us are naturally suspicious about the ‘blank cheque’ promise. We think that there must be or should be a condition attached. I asked Father about this, but He told me with absolute surety that there’s none – none for those who are believers and none also for those who are unbelievers. Father wants to show His extravagant love and grace to mankind.

Faith

It is essential that in this season we must trust God completely, with a fullness of heart. Father told me that everything will be done according to our faith. If we doubt Him, then doubt will linger, and doubt will grow larger and larger. And we will not receive the fullness of what He has for us.

Recovery and Restoration

I heard very distinctively in August 2015 that this is the season for those who have gone through the Joseph experience. Now is the season of recovery and restoration of God's promises that He had given them years ago. These are the people who have allowed God to deal with the roots of sin in their souls, as well as their fears, insecurities and weaknesses. In this season, they will move into their destiny. Doors have been opened widely for them that no one can shut. And they will walk into their destiny if they don't allow their sufferings to harden their hearts. By recognising that everything that happened in their life has been predetermined by God, they will find the path into their destiny a lot easier. If they fully trust in Him and don't doubt, they will receive their spiritual promotion. And He will give them a new name and their enemy will be shocked to see that they are now walking in absolute favour of God.

Father has been telling me over the years that the areas that the enemy has touched are the areas of blessings that God has for us. Therefore, these are the areas that we will see recovery and restoration in this season if we trust Him with the fullness of our heart.

Focus on Truth

In this season, we must have a single-minded focus. We must focus on Him, the Author and Finisher of our faith. God has released us from the things that have distracted, entangled and kept us in bondage, and we are to lay them aside, leave them behind and move forward now. God has removed the enemy of our souls and we are not to focus on them. The more we focus on them the more we empower them. Focus on the One who has overcome the world.

The Rivers of Living Water

A few years ago (July 2012), Father gave me a prophetic word. With great urgency in His voice, Father told me, "The level of water is rising, so tell my people to jump in, jump in quick, because it's rising. Once you are in this river, you'll find that the water will quickly rise up to your ankles, then your calves, then your knees, then your waist, then your chest, then your neck, then over your head. Then you will not be able to stand up, but you will be swept by this river and you will swim in it. You will no longer desire to control your life and you'll be happy for Me to take over. However, there are still many of My children who are sitting on the bank of the River only having their feet wet. They do not want to get in. Tell them to get in now."
