

Desire & The Kingdom

[Transcript of recorded talk on 16-7-2017 at Canberra's Kingdom Living Community]

This is something I wrote on 30 April 2017: “God desires to reveal the mysteries of the Kingdom, but only to those who desire to receive them willingly and act upon what they receive. To those who have no desire to receive the things of the Kingdom or act upon them, the truth is revealed but it is revealed in a way that does not bear fruit.” So that is something that I experienced.

I found out what's in his heart – it's a Father's heart. Like I was sharing last time, when Peter talked about the excitement he had, why he bought skis for his son. It is beyond explaining in words, beyond what we can write down or explain or comprehend. It is just the expression in your heart, it does not come from here [your mind], in your heart.

So, I heard one day – probably three weeks ago – while I was getting ready and having a shower or something. He spoke to me. The desire that I want Him to do in my life, it's from Him, but He desires to give that more than I desire.<sup>1</sup> So I don't know how much more – 100%, 200% – but something that gave me comfort was that He's aware of what is happening. He's aware of my journey. He's aware of what needs to be done in my life, what gives me happiness, what gives me surprises. And I'm reminded of that every day.

So, we sometimes try to twist His arm to make things happen in our lives, but He's willing to give it to us, it is open. Then He said, “Come to My heaven” or “Come to My throne room as a place that you like to come every day, that you like to hang out with me every day”. I tried to act it by faith, because I know through Christ I have access because He gave me that – I have been seated right next to or seated with Christ, right next to Him. And it is my choice, if I want it or not? So, I said “I'm in, I want that.” I want to grow and know the mysteries and treasures.

The things I know is very little, very little. The things that I operate in and the things I do is very little compared to what's in the Kingdom of God. So, He wants to give to those who desire and act, and the full manifestation of His Kingdom on Earth. But it depends on people, it all depends on each individual whether they want to access that desire or not. It is like when I passed my Year 12, always my desire was to have a motorbike, a very customised one. And my father was willing to give me his bike and gave me some cash to modify it. If someone gave me a car, I would say, “No” because it was never my desire to have a car. So a car could be better than a motorbike, but my desire was, “No, I don't want that”. Even if someone owes me, made me take, I don't want it. So, it's through various stages. Now I would like a car and a bike, and if I say what I like most is, I still say I like motorbikes.

So, I am very interested and excited to know more about the Kingdom of God and learn every day and to practise it, it's everyday life, it's a lifestyle, and to walk in that reality.
