Pope Francis Commemorates the Reformation That Divided Christianity

Kieren Underwood | November 5

WE TALKED ABOUT THIS

POPE FRANCIS GAVE A REFORMATION ANNIVERSARY SPEECH ON October 31 in Lund, Sweden, about the great steps taken toward reconciliation between the Catholics and Lutherans.

“We have the opportunity to mend a critical moment of our history by moving beyond the controversies and disagreements that have often prevented us from understanding one another,” Francis said.

Francis thanked God that “different ecclesial communities” have “refused to be resigned to division” and then thanked the Reformation for giving “greater centrality to sacred Scripture in the church’s life.” He told Catholics and Lutherans alike that they could not be “resigned to the division and distance” that have separated them.

Most mainstream news sources reported that Pope Francis’s
