

End-Time Sodom Jerusalem

The normal end-time picture of Israel and Jerusalem is a thriving, godly nation and city under the favour of Jehovah. Why? Because they are his people of favour, over and above gentile believers.

Well, that's how we read the Bible with our 'theological glasses' on.

However, this scripture of biblical prophecy sheds a different light on that notion.

Revelation 11:8 (AMP) – And their dead bodies will lie exposed in the open street of the great city (Jerusalem), which in a spiritual sense is called [by the symbolic and allegorical names of] Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

(The bodies are those of 'the two witnesses' who will be killed during the time that the gentiles “trample” Jerusalem for 3½ years prior to the 7th Trumpet blast.)

This prophetic statement means that Jerusalem, and by inference Israel, will be in worldly rebellion against God in 'the Times of The End'.
