

Focus on the Word of God, not the word of God

I recently received a short prophetic download that I can summarize this way:

- “Focus on the Word of God, not the word of God”

'The word' or 'the word of God' has been used by the church system for centuries when referring to the Bible or to scripture references. This is not wrong as it contains a record of what God has said and done.

The 'word of God' is also what was spoken by the OT prophets¹ and the NT apostles².

Jesus our King is 'the Word of God'³ or 'the Word'⁴.

It is our King that we are to focus on. This was the point of the download I received.

It is imperative in these final days to focus on the Word himself and allow him to give us “the word of God”. He does this by giving us revelation, downloads and prophetic messages. These are the words he wants us to understand and move with NOW – they are his 'now words' for us.

NOTE: The other reason I was given this message was to confirm the same revelation another person had received the following day.
