

God's Mind on Our Desires

One of our Kingdom Living Community members ('J') received this revelation recently:

- God desires to give us the desires of our heart more than we desire.

This is contradictory to current theology and could be dismissed as 'confess it you get it' doctrine.

However, when Father gives us personal information like this we must try to understand it in the framework of the Kingdom and his heart. Then we must ask him how we apply it. The mistake often made with new revelation is to miss out on that last step because we have a tendency to run with what we understand before getting the full understanding.

Why not ask Father to release to you more understanding of how his desires and your personal desires are fulfilled so that you don't deviate from alignment with him.

This is an exciting place to be.
