

I am not willing to do the Things in the Earth without your Participation

One of the members¹ of our Kingdom Community shared this revelation which was given to them by Father for their encouragement. It was a personally revelation received in the spirit, not received or given as a prophecy, but shared so that we could understand Father's plans for us.

“Let your confidence in Me: be the only option that you base your expectations upon. Failure is not a possibility. Because I will not be denied, you will not be denied. Because I will not be delayed, you will not be delayed. I am not willing to do the things in the earth without your participation. Yes, without you I will not do anything. I call you this day first partaker and a fully vested participant in the outpouring of My Spirit. So, go out in your day today and heal the sick, cast out devils and preach My UNADULTERATED gospel. I will confirm My word with signs following as you go out boldly and with great joy.”

NOTE: It is important that we all realize that in the Kingdom we are partnering with Father as his sons to see his purposes achieved on the Earth. Although he can do everything with his spoken word or with his angelic army, he's chosen to limit himself to work in the natural realm through his human sons who he made in his image² and installed as his representatives, placing them in rulership of the cosmos. It's a big responsibility, but to partner with him we have to rise to the occasion. That takes great faith and a casting of of religion to achieve his intended purposes for us, and we must be about Father's business every moment of the day.
