

KINGDOM COMMUNITY: The Essence is Christ

I received the following download this morning:

- “The Essence is Christ”

As we grow into a community outside of the institutional church, the most important thing is our relationship with Christ of King. No matter what happens when we get together – whether we do what everyone wants or whether some are disappointed, we must get to a point where we are a Spirit-led community.

In the meantime, we must put everything into our relationship with the Lord as this is the essence of the Kingdom life.

Once we reach who we’re supposed to be as a group, this essence will not change – it is the centrality of our personal lives.
