

MESSAGE: Now the Elections are Over 4-7-2016

(Transcribed from a smart phone recording at the CCOP meeting on 4th July 2016)

Question

Lord, you gave us advice for the elections. They have finished. What is it you want the citizens of Australia to know at this point?

Message

I have asked you to test all things, and in like manner I test all things. And I have been evaluating and testing this nation through this election, where their heart is. And it didn't surprise me, the results that I saw. It disheartens me because I have big plans for this nation, and they keep going around in circles. They keep looking inwardly, being introverted. "What do I want", they say to themselves. "What's in it for me." Dear me, there's got to be a change in this attitude, Australia, you've got to look outside of yourselves to the nation, to others, every single citizen.

Now you've seen what's happened as a result of this election. Take it to heart as a litmus test of where you stand as intelligent image-bearers of me. I would call it a failure because it has not come up to my standard! It hasn't flowed with me. It has flowed with the desires of mankind.

So the future is not exactly looking 'roses', so you'll need to 'knuckle down' and focus on the things that are your responsibility, each and every citizen. Turn your backs on entertainment and on self-pleasure and start thinking about this nation and the city you're in, how you can contribute. Because I placed humanity here to be in charge of this planet. I allowed humanity to grow into civilizations and great nations, all for the purpose of taking care and managing this planet. I never intended for humanity to be free-loaders, to be lazy. It's not in my nature and it's not my intention.

So, now that the election is over, the work will now be harder than it would have been if you had followed my directions. You're now going to have to focus on your savings, on your work, on those things you are responsible for and those things that you are financially responsible for.

I am still working, but I need people to work with me. I'm not some form of magician who will just snap my fingers and things fall into place. It is my intention to work through human beings, through people, to see my plans (Father's plans) brought into being.

And so, we move forward into another year, and another decade, and things are bubbling underneath, and things will break forth. But my eyes are on the future. My eyes are on my plans and my eyes are on the next generation. I'm putting a great deal of effort into this next generation. See to it, older Australians, that you do the same, 'cause these are your hope. Don't look to your leaders, to your politicians, look to me and how I'm going to work through your people.

Remember, you are a chosen nation – a sheep nation, a leader nation, a prince nation. Rise up to your destiny. I am calling you today.

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. Our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. Our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. Our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia.
