

Stop Forcing Things to Happen

Do you dislike big business 'squeezing' every $ out of people so they can make more profit? Well, if you want to get the last $ of discount out of businesses, there is foundationally no different in the way you operate. When you drive businesses to discount and cut more off the price before you will buy – called 'striking a hard bargain' – you have the same foundational thinking as big business. Do you realise this?

Working at getting blessed or forcing finance to flow from the world system into the Kingdom is not operating the Kingdom way. It's all about getting something for yourself – even if you justify it as a Kingdom activity or a heavenly blessing.

This method is forcing money to come to you. It's human 'works'. It's not the Kingdom bringing you blessing. This' because you are using a World System technique, not the Kingdom's method.

This understanding came as a revelation to me recently. The Spirit dropped into my spirit that I was working this way, in error. On 2 occasions he advised me that people need to be paid – that it was wrong to dupe them out of what is rightfully theirs.

1. Buying hens: I drove to the village of Wamboin (NSW) to buy 3 laying hens. I thought the price was $20 each and had the right amount of cash for that. The supplier said $16 each, but I didn't have the right change. He rounded it off to $45 which I had in my wallet. I paid and left feeling elated that I didn't have to pay $20 each for them and got a $3 discount at the same time. As I drove home the Spirit challenged me that my attitude was wrong and that it had clouded my judgement. Because I was euphoric, I was shown, I didn't think about how I could pay the remaining $3. I knew when I was paying that I had no coins in my pants, but I failed to remember that I had some parking meter cash in the car's console which I could have used to pay the bill completely. The spirit convicted me that a person is worthy to receive payment for their goods and services¹ and that it was wrong to want to reduce what was rightfully theirs. On the way home I decided to send him a cheque for $3, but I only knew his first name. I sent him a text message apologising for not having the right money and asking him for his surname so I could send him the remainder of what I owed him. He exonerated me and asked that I buy more hens from him in the future instead.
2. Blessing a hawker: A young woman came to our door asking for donations for a charity. She was a paid collector. I explained to her that I give financially as I am shown by the Spirit and that I wouldn't give to her charity. Because I had agreed with the Spirit that it is honourable to pay a person fully for their goods and services, I said to her, "You will lose income if I don't subscribe to your offer to give? Can I give you something personally? I mean money?" She replied that her wage was good enough and she wouldn't take anything for herself. I felt I had to give her something so I asked if I could give her a message from the spirit realm. She agreed, so I gave her a prophetic message and she left looking quizzical at having had an experience that she'd never had before.

This understanding is part of a paradigm shift arising from the principle which states:

Anything that originates from yourself and not the Spirit is a WORK of the flesh

This includes:

- Who you pray for
- What you pray
- Who you witness to
- What believer's organisation you support
- How much money you give away
- Who you help with assistance
- What you spend your time on, etc.

Works of the flesh are burnt off like hay and stubble when we are judged by our righteous King before receiving our eternal rewards.

Read this important scripture reference:

1 Corinthians 3:11-13 (NKJV) – For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is.

This is important to grasp the concepts of works originating from man as it 'flies in the face' of current church teaching even though the teaching is based on bible verses² about doing good to all men.

You see, we are always to do good, righteous things, not bad, unrighteous things. This is our nature as sons of the Most High God. HOWEVER, even though they are good and coming from a pure heart, only Kingdom generated activities are “gold, silver, precious stones” that pass through the fire of judgement and are rewarded eternally.

You must get this principle.

You must implement this principle and, like Jesus the man, only do what you are shown to do.

- He could do nothing of His own self . (John 5:30)
- He did nothing of himself. (John 8:28)
- He spoke what Father taught him. (John 8:28)
- He spoke what Father told him. (John 12:49)
- He spoke what he had seen with Father. (John 8:38)

Jesus the man is our prototype...so why don't we completely copy his mode of operation?
