

The Bamboo House Vision

Marsha Burns recorded what had recently happened in their organisation in an October distributed email entitled 'The Bamboo House'<sup>1</sup>. It involved tearing down the old and rebuilding with the new. The quotes below are all from that email.

“Much of what we built in the past has been torn down. But, the foundation on Christ stands firm, and He will cause us to build again.

We have seen the work of men. We have seen the work of religion. We have experienced division, exploitation and fleshly endeavors. It is now time to see what God will do!

I know that we have all said, at one time or another, "If I had it to do over again..." Well, we are entering a season when we will have opportunities to do things in life differently-things that we deemed to be failures. ”

She shared a vision of a bamboo house:

“In a vision I saw a man building a house with bamboo, and I knew this house would be simple, flexible, and durable.

Bamboo includes some of the fastest-growing plants in the world. Bamboo has a higher compressive strength than wood, brick, or concrete and a tensile strength that rivals steel. Compressive strength resists being pushed together, whereas tensile strength resists being pulled apart.

I believe this vision is a type of who we are becoming in Christ. God is about to cause us to become a better house-simple, flexible, durable.”

She saw another vision of a fork in the road that a traveller had to make a choice which direction to go. The Lord said to her about it:

“You are coming to an intersection in life where you must choose the direction that your life will take. The choices will be clear, and you will be able to distinguish between the two. One path will draw you ever closer to Me, says the Lord, and the other path will take you further down the road of worldliness and self-interest. Choose wisely.”

This is confirmation of what has been happening with myself. It is also the experience of some others who have come out of the religious system. It will be the move of God for those who are desiring to completely change so that they come into alignment with the where the King is taking his people.
