

The Coming New Awakening

According to the prophetic revelation received by Russell Waldren¹ there is going to be a Great Awakening in our time. He of course is speaking of the USA, but it will flow on around the world. Whether or not this move starts in the US or whether he's been given insight into the US component remains to be seen.

Russell was shown that this awakening would follow in the aftermath of what will become to be known as the 'Great Disillusionment' of the church. He describes the Great Disillusionment' in this way: "The establishment church in America is about to be disenfranchised in the political arena in such a way that their political aspirations will be publicly and openly crushed."²

He describes this coming Great Awakening as beginning in the younger generations who will be rejected by the systemic church:

*"The church will not initially accept this new cohort of mission minded young people. They will be orphaned from the establishment church but will find their spiritual DNA in a contingent of servant minded mothers and fathers who will validate their zeal and passion for Christ. Affirmed by their spiritual mentors, these young lions without religious pedigree will burst on the world scene with great fervor to confront the nations of the earth with the claims of Christ...On the east coast this revival will break out led by unlikely young people out of the rural areas of Pennsylvania and the Appalachians. Governors and city leaders will convene to consider what response is necessary to quell a movement they don't understand. This Great Awakening generation will have a COMPLETE disconnect from what they will term "THE ESTABLISHMENT CHURCH". The establishment church will reject this movement though its ranks will be filled with their own children. This movement will not initially accept full gospel, Charismatic, or Pentecostal doctrine or practice. They will identify these influences as part of the establishment church and reject them completely."*³

A study of the two characters, Captain Jim Kirk and Commander Spock, in the Star Trek movie "Into Darkness"⁴ exemplifies the juxtapositioning of the legalistic established church and these 'wild', unbridled young ones. They will be Spirit-led and unpredictable,⁵ having allegiance to the King only.

There will also be a call by the Spirit for "spiritual moms and dads to have the spirit of a mid-wife to give birth to this thing that He is doing."⁶

It is clear that what Russell has been shown mirrors what has been revealed for Australia. Already our King has moved to prepare spiritual mothers and fathers in our nation to raise up the next generation. We are being prepared today to be ready to disciple, mentor and father these spiritual warriors. The Light Horse Breaker Anointing which was released at the Prophetic Worship School, Dural (NSW) on 12/7/2008 was one such calling forth of spiritual fathers with an apostolic mantle.

I was shown from the Star Trek movie that these adult mentors will need to train these young ones to honour and esteem the ekklesia's apostles, prophets and plural eldership. This will be needed because society today is being 'programmed' through movies to expect rebels to have all the success, rather than the wise and steady. These young ones will need to have their enthusiasm and drive tempered with godly wisdom and discernment. Otherwise, they will wreak havoc and bring 'damage' to the Kingdom'.

So, prepare yourself for what's coming. Ask the Spirit to do any preparation in you so you are part of the promotion team, not the 'kill joys'.
