

Was 23rd September 2017 Really Significant?

There's been a lot of talk around lately about the full solar eclipse in the US on 21st August and the alignment of celestial bodies on the 23rd September this year. Many Bible prophecy exponents are seeing these as markers for the start of the Tribulation and the countdown for the Lord's Return.

Are we to expect what they've prognosticated?

Even "The Trumpet"¹ has come out using biblical prophecy to lampoon these latest predictions. Unfortunately, adhering to Futurist eschatology, they present their own interpretation of biblical prophecy while totally negating prophecy today.

IMPORTANT

It's critical for us to realise as Kingdom sons that our understanding of circumstances and world events comes from receiving revelation from the one in charge of the universe. Our Lord, the Creator, has all knowledge and is intimately involved in the affairs of Earth. Why wouldn't we want to know what he thinks and is doing? Why do we believe the Bible has all the answers for today when it was written for people 2,000-5,000 years ago?

We are a revelatory people, just as the first apostles were. We interpret life and events with heavenly wisdom, knowledge and understanding. This only comes from spiritual hearing as the Spirit deposits understanding in our spirits when we've consulted our liege on any important matter.

It's essential. Develop your spiritual hearing and start entering into your own 'King's Counsel' every day.
