

“Kingdom Citizens
Are Also Ambassadors”

Why do we use the term 'ambassadors'?

“We are ambassadors for Christ”

2 Corinthians 5:20 (NKJV)

We've heard the expression:

Ambassadors for Christ

What does it mean?

Is being an ambassador
'waving the flag'
so that everyone
knows that the church is here?

We do this by doing Christian things, talking Christian talk, celebrating Christian special days and always going to church on Sunday

You're free to do those things if you want to

Is this what it means to be an ambassador?

Is it having a building
that tells the world
that the church is here?

Is this what it
means to be an ambassador?

One other question:

What type of ambassador are we to be?

Kingdom Ambassadors

Ambassadors
accurately represent their country and their head of state in another country

We represent the Kingdom of Heaven and our sovereign, King Jesus, here on Earth

Our responsibility is to do this accurately

Jesus said:

“He who has seen Me has seen the Father”

John 14:9 (NKJV)

You and I don't represent Australia
by competing overseas

It's by who we are, what we say and do

It's the same with the

KINGDOM
