

If it dies when you die, you are a failure

*“If you die today as a leader, leaving the studio in an accident, what happens to your organization? What happens to your church? What happens to your business? If it dies when you die, you are a failure,”*¹

So said Myles Munroe in a TV video interview that reinforces what he taught us previously about making sure we are mentoring others. Apostolic leaders must be spiritual fathers, so check that you have this desire in you. If not, ask the Lord to develop it.

We must ‘think generational’ even though these are the Last Days.
