

MESSAGE: Canberra Church Leaders

(Council of the Lord on 3-10-2016)

Question: Lord, there are various groups of pastors meeting in the town of Canberra. What is Your Message for these groups?

Message

Put aside your agendas. Put aside your differences. I say to you these are essential for you to come together. To be in unity as I desire, you must come humbly as you come together, and come together as sons. Put aside all parochial ideas of your organisation and your church and your plans and your purposes. When the leaders of the various organisations come together, there needs to be oneness as in a family, honouring and respecting one another, knowing each other.

I want to tell you that this is not a plan that is going to succeed if you desire to come together to twist my arm to do things for you. It is my pleasure to see my sons come together and fellowship together. But it is not like a board meeting, an aggressive board meeting, for an aggressive takeover that I see at many of these meetings. That may shock you, but when you put your plans and purposes above mine, that's the way I see them. I desire for you to come together and allow me to chair the meetings. It is good that you come and socialise and meet together as men and as men and women, as leaders. But it really should be like the counsels of old where the knights come into the presence of the king and hear from him and go about his business, like the Knights of the Round Table. And that's the way I see you, as knights, as the upper leadership of my people, those who are really focused on doing the things that are important for me. But remember, it's my plans, my purposes, not yours.

Come together and let me sit on the throne. Let me take the chairman's position. Why not ask me what I would like for you to do as a group, as a team? That seems a sensible thing for you to do. Yes, I know this has happened on occasions, but this is the way I would like to see your meetings come together, as a counsel, seeking me and finding my purposes and asking, "What do we do?", "What are your plans?" "We are here to serve you".

There's not a lot of time to waste on the things of human purpose. Align yourself with me and my Kingdom and you will see major changes within your organisations and within this city. I want to bless you, to prospect you, but alignment is essential.

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. Our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. Our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. Our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia.
