

MESSAGE: Strategy for CCOP

(Council of the Lord on 7-11-2016)

Question: Lord, what is your strategy for our group of prophets here in Canberra?

Message #1

It has been good meeting with you on these weekly/monthly get-togethers that we are having. I enjoy your company, I enjoy the questions that you ask. I am looking forward to speaking more into your lives and giving you direction to where I want you to go. I haven't said much about it in the recent past because I want you to get used to coming into my counsel and asking me so that you don't run ahead and do things 'off your own bat'.

I have been keeping things close to myself, but I will release them to you once I can trust you to move forward in alignment with me, because many in the past have gone off on their own tangent because they have thought that they had my approval in what they were doing, and they ceased being in alignment with me as they did that. But I don't want that for you, I want you to stay in alignment with me, close to me, like hand-in-hand, because it is important that I give you the messages for the church and for this nation, and it is not as simple as just coming and sitting and hearing. I will release more to you about it shortly.

As things are moving in the world, in America, and things are changing around the globe, it is important that my message does get out. I want you to continue to meet on a more regular basis to encourage each other and to come into my presence because as things speed up, you need to know more and more, because the climate of the world's political systems will change very quickly from now on, and you will need to have updates on a regular basis, and coming together as a group will allow me to give it to you from the numbers that turn up because I speak to each one differently.

Thank you for trusting me. Thank you for having the faith to come into my presence and to step out. I know you haven't seen me face-to-face, but you are coming into my presence because you know in your spirit that you are connected to me. Allow that to seep deep into your spirit and into your soul, that you are meeting with me, and relax and rest in that so that we can move forward in greater depth and greater spiritual dynamics.

Don't give up. Don't think that this is a waste of time, that you're not getting through to Canberra and those around the nation, because the voice of the prophet must go out. It's up to the people to answer and respond. Thank you for being my mouthpiece as a group. I have called you together, I trained you and called you, brought you together. I thinned the group out and I will add to it as time goes on, as I show you who has the acumen, who has the ability and the skills, and my approval to join.

This is a special group and I want it to be specially constructed and organised by myself and not by you. Feel free to ask others to come and participate that seek my approval to those who become firm members. I love you and I love what you are doing, and I will strengthen you. As I have said to some of you in the past, I will give you a forehead of flint to stand against the opposition. Do not fear the opposition, it will come and it will go, and it will come again. And as time moves on and as you speak louder for me as I give you more pertinent things to say, the opposition will become stronger and more vocal, and you will be severely tempted to give up, to cease. Be strong, be of good courage and don't give up. I am depending on you. I have called you, I have empowered you, I have anointed you, and I will increase the power and anointing in the future so you will know that you speak for me. I bless you.

Message #2

Did I not say in the past that there will be difficulties, there will be opposition? So why do you struggle with the fact that people oppose you? Why do you hold back? Why do you allow peer pressure to dull your voice and cease the trumpet sound that I want to declare? Wake up! Strengthen yourself! Gird yourself, as the Scriptures say. Prepare yourself for what is ahead. Prepare yourself to be a prophet and spokesman for me, for this city and for this nation. If you don't want that, let me know and I will find someone to replace you.

You are being called. You know because I have spoken to you, to your spirit. Take heart, be bold, because the Kingdom works by faith, and if you don't step out by faith, you are half-hearted, I cannot work through you.

The fire that I must ignite in this nation must come from bold, prophetic voices. Train yourself prophetically. Steel yourself. Grit your teeth and move forward and practise and stand up straight and tall. Speak what I give you. Do not falter, do not hesitate. Learn. Practise now because the messages I have to bring in the future will be so great and so strong and so hard to give that it will take the backbone strength of a person of seasoned practice. That's my challenge for you.

You ask what my strategy is for you as a group? Well, one of the strategies for you is to train yourselves to grow up and mature in the things of the prophetic, because I can't use you to the maximum amount that I want to if you do not grow up and mature. That takes boldness and humility. There's no brashness in this. I don't want to see any brashness. I don't want to see any pride. I don't want to see any aggression. I want to see you surrendering to me so that I can give you the words to speak which will contain the fire that you need to deposit in the lives and the hearts of others. It is not to come from your soul and from your mind – that is works, and I don't work through your works, I work through my works.

Be an empty vessel. And like Jeremiah, if they place you in a well and leave you there for months on end, that is your reward, so to speak, for your prophetic gift. It is a badge of honour, it is not something to steer away from. Do not fear opposition and what people may do to you. Remember, I said to my disciples that those who are not prepared to suffer as I suffer were not worthy of me, and I speak that to you. If you want to save your life, save your soul, save your being, then you are not worthy to be my spokesperson.

I know this is not easy for you to take, but please grow up, you are no longer babies. I am training you, I am maturing you. Learn to be a son who takes chastisement from Father, and apply that and grow up rather than to be wounded and turn away. I am for you. Though all may be against you, know that I am for you.

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. Our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. Our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. Our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia.
