

MESSAGE: Strategies Now the Elections are Finished

4-7-2016

(Transcribed from a smart phone recording at the CCOP meeting on 4th July 2016)

Question

Lord, now that the elections are finished, and parties are put into place, what are your strategies for us: for politicians and other leaders in Canberra and Australia?

Message

If you think this is an insignificant question, you're mistaken. If you've been listening, if your heart has been turned towards me, then you'll want to know more, and I want to pass on more. This is my decision as a result of the elections.

People, wake up! You've not been listening, you've not been inclining your ear towards me. You've not been participating in the things that I have for this nation. You've been following your own paths, your own desires. It's time to 'clean up your act', 'clean up your own backyard'. Instead of pointing your finger at others and at politicians and those who are doing 'this that and the other', it's time to 'get your house in order' because things are moving ahead and moving ahead quickly.

This is a time to be vigilant. A time to aspire to the things that I have – the things that I have planned, the things that I am wanting to do in this nation, this great nation of Australia. Hear me and hear me well: Those who are listening will prosper and will move ahead. This is a challenge to you. It's pretty simple. Take up the challenge and move forward with it. I challenge you, each one of you, with this proposal. It's not a threat, it's a proposal to test me and see that if I don't do good as I have promised.

This is a great day. Every day, by the way, is a great day in me. Because I am moving forward my plans are achieving their goals. You mightn't see them, because 'your glasses are fogged', as it were. But I'm moving in the background, I'm moving in the foreground, I'm moving in the front, I'm moving behind, and at the sides. Time's moving forward and I'm moving with it, and I am taking this nation to its destiny. There are hiccups on the way, as there have been in this election, and there have been in the past. And there'll be hiccups in the future, 'bumps in the road' as we progress together to our destiny [together].

Seek my face. Pretty simple, isn't it! Turn to me. Hear from me. Love me. Set your heart to serve me 100% and you'll see things change.

So I'm waiting to see your response as a nation, as a people. See to it, individually. You're all responsible.

Leaders, take up your mantles of leadership and start taking responsibility for your actions, and your thoughts, and things you've set in place. And also, those things you've set in train that are going to move forward into the future. It's not about getting money, wealth, and being rich and retiring early. It's about sowing into this wonderful nation. Start changing your habits.

Politicians, start working for the good of the nation instead of for your parties and for the pressure-groups and for the elite who want things done a certain way. I've allowed this nation to be a democratic nation and that means that the elected politicians are to work on behalf of the people, not for their own agendas and the agendas of others, irrespective or despite the citizens.

Businessmen, start sowing back into your nation. Commercial people, start having the attitude that you are being productive for the nation and not just for yourselves, and not just to get an income to pay your bills.

There must be a change. You will see a big change if you pick up this mantle of serving your nation and desiring your nation to prosper. Yep. That's pretty simple too. Just a simple change of attitude away from you to the nation.

So I leave it with you. I'll watch and see how you develop. Remember, I am watching.

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. Our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. Our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. Our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia.
