

MESSAGE: Multiculturalism in Australia

(King's Counsel on 11-9-2017)

Question: Lord, what's your mind on multiculturalism<sup>1</sup> in our nation?

Message

Australia, I love my Australia. This nation I have set apart for greatness, and I have brought to your shores people from many, many nations throughout the world. They have brought with them skills, they have brought with them knowledge, they have brought with them cultural processes and ways of doing things and food. I have blended you together and I am in the process of steeling you, strengthening you, welding you together into a unit, because this nation must begin to think as one.

I have a purpose in bringing many, many nations to this nation. The continued input of each one of them has a positive influence on the nation that I want you to become. This is not about the clothes you wear and the way you do your hair, it's part of the mind, the corporate mind of this nation, the corporate heart of this nation. When each individual member of society begins to accept everyone else and see each other as Australian and allow the cultural bits and pieces from different nations to come together to make something wonderful and unique, this nation will move forward in greatness. Division will cease. The nation will rise up as one.

Circumstances will be the biggest force behind this change, but this is my desire. The many cultures must become one, one nation. Both the aboriginal and the immigrants to become one nation. They must see themselves as one.

Multiculturalism in the form of each group becoming an island to themselves and maintaining their culture is dividing this nation. Many, many nations in history have come together from immigrants from many other areas, and they have developed and grown into a unique nation, and this is what Australia can do and this is what they must do.

Cease focusing on where you came from and begin seeing yourself as a nation – Australia, made up of many people. I will glue you together. I will advance you, but unity is what I am after. I am a God of unity. I desire unity. Unity is powerful.

Australia, learn to see each other as Aussies. Put aside your differences, grow together. Harmony must rise up. This is where greatness will come from. You saw it in World War I and World War II when the nation worked together as one, with a common enemy – all differences put aside, working together. The demographics have changed since World War II, so there needs to be a new push for unity, and unity is a focus on the nation, not a focus on the cultural backgrounds. This is important. Australia has to rise up, and unity is part of that.

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. New members are being identified and trained all the time. Our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. Our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. Our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia.

1 – Multiculturalism is an ideology based on the idea that every culture must maintain its identity so that it is not lost. The value is placed in the culture, not the people or the nation. Multiculturalism maintains culture distinctions in a country to the extent that cultural enclaves are easily produced as ethnic groups stick together. Rather than producing harmony in diversity, the experience of history is that it continues to divide nations and is the seat of racial unrest and the precursor to civil war. For example: The success of England becoming a united nation of Anglo-Saxons and Normans, despite civil unrest, is scarred today by the disunity of Scotland, Wales and Ireland who cannot meld to become one – the people of Great Britain.
