

Christians Who Are Assassins

The Jezebel spirit desires to 'kill' other believers so they can get what they want. This is what could be called a Christian assassin. Many don't believe Christians can act this way, but believe me, they do – and these are what seem to be the most spiritual of women. I have experienced the work of one such assassin and know that they are real. In my personal experience, in a time of interaction the assassin inadvertently confessed that they wanted to destroy me.

Watch out for them. They will become more active as we align ourselves with Heaven.¹

The influence of the Jezebel spirit causes them to:²

1. Target leaders – They usually offer to help where help is desperately needed so they can get close to the leader. It may be in administration, intercession or some other areas.
2. Make false covenants – They don't intend to keep these because they are designed to gain position. They will even pledge things like: "I will fight with you. I will stand with you. No matter what happens, I will have your back."
3. Seem spiritual to outsiders – They talk about their prayer lives and long fasts. They share what they see in the spirit realm with all and sundry. They can pray eloquent prayers and prophesy encouraging words to others, but usually in an out-of-the-way place where no one else can hear. Their aim is to gather people to themselves.
4. Seek to isolate leader from others – They vehemently oppose anyone who can speak into the leader's life, especially prophetic people with insight. They are planning to be the leader's oversight, so they eliminate all those they see as opponents for that position.
5. Pit people against each – People who are a threat to them are 'set up' and forced to leave the group.
6. Play the victim – They thrive on other people's pity.
7. Are never wrong – Everyone else is the problem not them. Any repentance is false repentance so they can keep on your good side.
8. Seem humble – This is false humility because it comes from a religious spirit.
9. Feel self-important – They must have their way and they will manipulate to get it.
10. Not be accountable to anyone – Those who try to make them accountable are accused of being a Jezebel. (They normally accuse others of exactly what they are, to throw off suspicion)
11. Look for those who are hurt, wounded or insecure – Their aim is control, whether it's becoming their prophet, teacher or spiritual guide. The people they draw to themselves, become their eunuchs.
12. Make others feel guilty – This is their response if you don't bow to their needs. They use Christian-ese to get you to do what they want. "You're not operating in the fruit of the Spirit" or "You're not being Christlike" are common ploys to get you to submit to what they want.
13. Operate through others – Especially those with insecurity, emotional instability, pride, arrogance, manipulation and control.
14. Twist the facts – They have selective memory and it's not always deliberately done. They speak with smooth and slick words, almost convincing you that they are right – until you see through it.
15. Start praying witchcraft prayers against others – They pray their own will rather than God's will. For example: "Lord, remove that person from that position. That position belongs to me". This is the influence of an advanced Jezebel spirit.
