

The Glory & Darkness at the End of the Age

[Quotes are from "The Final Quest"¹ by Rick Joyner which documents his visits to Heaven]

In the Kingdom, events are planned in Heaven and when the time is right they are implemented on the Earth and in the Universe. The archaic way of stating this is, "in the fullness of time" – i.e. 'when enough time has passed' or 'when time has matured'. So, at the right time, the Son was sent as the man Jesus.² At the right time all things will be brought together as one entity, under the domain of King Jesus.³

For about 5 years now our King has been advising us about this unification of all things. In 2018 he formally identified this as a new era in the Kingdom.⁴ We have also been advised that this era will be a glorious time for the sons of God,⁵ but a dark time for the earth and its inhabitants.⁶ This was made clear in the 1990s when Rick Joyner was advised of the following by Jesus during a visitation:

"When the evil in mankind has become fully united with the evil one, the great time of trouble will come upon the earth. Then all of mankind and the whole creation will understand the futility and tragedy of rebellion. At the same time, My people will become fully united with Me, and My great light will stand against the great darkness. Those who walk in lawlessness will fall into the deep darkness. Those who walk in obedience will shine forth as the stars of heaven."⁷

This and more information given to Rick for the end-time church has been recorded in his first trilogy of books:

1. 'The Final Quest'⁸
2. 'The Call'⁹
3. 'The Torch and The Sword'¹⁰

Rick was shown in his transportations to Heaven that the full force of the Kingdom of Darkness will set about to destroy the church.

"I saw a demonic army so large that it stretched as far as I could see. It was separated into divisions, with each carrying a different banner. The foremost and most powerful divisions were Pride, Self righteousness, Respectability, Selfish Ambition, and Unrighteous Judgment, but the largest of all was Jealousy. The leader of this vast army was the Accuser of the Brethren himself. I knew that there were many more evil divisions beyond my scope of vision, but these were the vanguard of this terrible horde from hell that was now being released against the church..."¹¹

One of the most interesting thing that Rick was show was that the end-time church system will be in total chaos. They will be totally deceived, in bondage, and under the control of the Kingdom of Darkness. Only the true Sons will be free.

"The most shocking part of this vision was that this horde was not riding on horses, but on Christians! Most of them were well-dressed, respectable, and had the appearance of being refined and educated. These were Christians who had opened themselves to the powers of darkness to such a degree that the enemy could use them and they would think that they were being used by God..

Trailing behind these first divisions were a vast multitude of other Christians who were prisoners of this army. They were all wounded, and were guarded by little demons of Fear. There seemed to be more prisoners than there were demons in the army. Surprisingly, these prisoners still had their swords and shields, but they did not use them. It was shocking to see that so many could be kept captive by so few of these little demons of Fear. These could have easily been destroyed or driven off if the prisoners had just used their weapons...

Then I understood that these prisoners actually thought they were marching in the army of God! This is why they did not kill the little demons of Fear, or the [demon] vultures - they thought these were messengers from God! The darkness from the cloud of [demon] vultures made it so hard for these prisoners to see that they naively accepted everything that happened to them as being from the Lord."¹²

Another interesting thing that Rick learnt was that the true end-time church (the ekklesia i.e. the genuine sons of The Most High God) are a small company of people compared to the full number of those who call themselves Christians.

"Then I turned and saw the army of the Lord standing behind me. There were thousands of soldiers, but we were still greatly outnumbered. Only a small number were fully dressed in their armor so that most were only partially protected. A large number were already wounded. Most of those who had all of their armor still had very small shields which I knew would not protect them from the onslaught that was coming...

Behind this army there was a trailing mob similar to the prisoners who followed the evil army, but very different in nature. These seemed to be very happy people, and were playing games, singing songs, feasting and roaming about from one little camp to the next."¹³

So there you have it. The time of the very End will be a time of great glory for small number of genuine sons and a time darkness for the whole Earth.

The critical thing for each of us now, as we travel along in this new era of the Kingdom in preparation for the End, is what are we going to do about it? We have enough information already to realise that we could easily falter.¹⁴
