

Coming into Alignment

Graham Cooke

Your Emotions reveal your destiny. page 61-76

Thoughts taken from Graham's wording.

66. Father loves our emotions! They were his gift to us so that we could live from our heart with him. This may sound a little suspect at first, but Graham is not talking about the negative emotions of the soul, because these are directly linked to the outside world. He is referring to the emotions of the spirit.

The inner man of the spirit only lives in the presence of God. It has no external connection. Life flows from God within, through our spirit to the soul and beyond. However, it cannot flow backwards. The soul cannot overwhelm the spirit unless our will permits it to do so.

67. He also uses our emotions to connect us to our calling and destiny. What you love is a guide to the gifting and influence that the Lord wants to bestow on you. What would you do if money was not a factor? Think about this outside the box a bit more. It means you have an open cheque book from God. He has already given you the green light to proceed in your kingdom assignment. All you have to do is stay in alignment with him. There will be obstacles but he has gone ahead and left a sign post for you to follow. Very exciting!

71. We are learning to fight from a place of rest and peace. Rest is a weapon. The enemy cannot penetrate our peace but he can be destroyed by it. Peace releases an authority that commands total obedience.

What we detest is a guide to that which God has called us to deliver. Graham refers to his personal calling to deliver the church from religiosity and back into compassion and into standing in the presence of God.

75. Questions to answer.

1. What do you feel strongly about?
2. List what you love as a guide to your gifting and influence over other people.
3. What you hate gives you the power to deliver. Who and what you are empowered to set free?
4. Identify your feelings and cross reference them with your permission in the spirit. Claim your identity and your anointing!
