

Live from the Inside Out

I have been teaching on the revelation that we have to live out of the Internal Kingdom.¹ This was confirmed by the CCOP message “Genuine Kingdom Life”² (27-12-2019) and the teaching of Terry Bennett³.

This week Brian Simmons repeated it as a prophetic download in his weekly e-newsletter:⁴

“My child, I want you to live in such confidence in your relationship with me that nothing moves you. I want you to walk with such awareness of my presence that you and I carry on a constant conversation. I want you to feel my nearness every moment of the day. I want to draw you into the depths of my heart, day and night.

This is the inner life I’ve called you to lead—I want you to then live from the inside out. I offer you the chance to know me. To really know my character and to believe in my generous nature. I want you to know me as Savior, Friend, and Overcoming King. I offer you the chance to live in the way you’ve always dreamed. To be fully aware of the direction I’m leading you. To notice the gentle tug that pulls you toward your destiny into an excited and spontaneous response. I want you to be so confident in my Spirit within you that the realm of my kingdom is just as real—or even more real—than the situations around you. I want you to live from the inside out.”

What more can I say?

Get started on learning how to do this. I am.⁵
