

A New Way of Partnering with Heaven

This week my eldest daughter and myself were independently used to partner with Heaven in a way that we've never experienced before.

About Tuesday in the week, during my morning time of drinking of the Living Water and drawing from the life in my Internal Kingdom, I was distinctly but gently prompted in my spirit to speak out something like the following: "Lord, I invite you to do whatever it is that you want to do in Australia during this coronavirus pandemic. I align with you. I want what you want for Australia. Have your way in Australia. Whatever it is, I approve." That's all. Very simple. Not a command or a demand or an entreaty. It wasn't prayer, intercession or spiritual warfare. Not even a declaration or a decree. Just an invitation coming out of my position as a son with managerial Kingdom authority in Australia.

I left it there. There was no spiritual surge in power at any time. No Spirit manifestation. Nothing. Just me telling to my liege that I was in agreement with him.

I don't know what it achieved. I don't want to know. It's none of my business.

Friday this week, my daughter sends an SMS message. She relayed that she was urged to pray for Italy by the Lord. He told her that he was desperate because they were all crying out in the name of Mary, so he couldn't do anything. She actually felt the ache in his heart for them. He asked her to release him to do what he needed to do in Italy. Just that. Nothing else.

Identical to my experience.

So, when we align with Heaven, part of which means we desire the Trinity's plans to be fulfilled on Earth, we will be asked to do all sorts of things. All we need to do is to make ourselves available all the time and hear what he tells us.

Exciting.
