

What Does Militancy Look Like in the Kingdom?

INTRODUCTION

In 2014 I was advised by the Spirit that it was time to raise a Gideon army.

“Time to raise an army like Gideon. Not just young people – our older generation – they are looking for you.”

Since then I've been shown that this will be a very small, spiritually-skilled unit. Like Gideon's army, the large number who volunteer for this contingent will exonerate themselves from participating when they find out that complete surrender and total compliance is required.

I was told that this army will be militant soldiers of the King.

“You will raise a group of people who will be militant...So it's not raising a passive group of people who say, "OK. Oh, I like this", or, "Let me see. I can try it out. I'll have to check it out".”

REVELATION

I've been slowly getting an understanding of this militancy over time, but I was very wary that I didn't turn into a fundamentalist fanatic by jumping ahead of the Trinity. On the 20-6-2020, one of the young men who I'm a spiritual father to, was given a prophetic deposit in his spirit about the militant side of this army.

All the pieces of understanding are now available to me. All that needs to happen is the process of their formation and training. That will be happening worldwide because I'm not the only one charged with this military production.

CONFIRMATION

The week in June 2020 when I received the prophetic advice about militancy, I also received confirmation that things are moving forward in the formation of this Gideon Army.

(i) Noa Muranyi (Canberra) sent me a prophetic word she received called ‘God's Army’. Read it here:

(ii) I also received Ron McGatlin's article “A Most Significant Day Of The Lord Is Upon Us”¹.

(iii) There was Wanda Alger's prophetic message² the same week.

(iv) The follow week there was Jamie Rohrbaugh's prophetic article ‘You Have Encountered Your Own Authority’³. This was the clincher for me as it pointed out that I had just received an impacting insight into my authority as a son. Here's a quote from it:

“Recently, the Lord showed me that some of you in the body of Christ have just encountered the Spirit of the Lord in a way that has left you permanently shaken. If that's you, this word is absolutely vital for you to understand today.

This is what the Lord showed me:

Literally overnight, the Lord has moved you into a place of revelation that there is more in you than you currently have opportunity to express.

If this word applies to you, you have just encountered your own authority. You have just seen a picture of yourself as you were meant to be. You saw the authority in which you were meant to walk.

When you did, you were so overtaken and overwhelmed by God's Holy Spirit that you were overwhelmed and could barely speak...

The picture you saw of your own authority—of yourself as you were meant to be—was presented to you by the Lord for such a time as this.

The Lord wants you to know that, even though your heart is in agony over this, He understands. He is the only one who does, for no one has ever believed in you as He does; no one has ever searched His heart for you as His own Spirit has."

These all added different perspectives to the 'prophetic deposit' of my/our authority that I was given.

THE CAUTION

To move ahead in Kingdom militancy requires years of retraining. Not only reprogramming to change all knowledge, so that it aligns with spiritual reality rather than religion, but also character traits need to be changed.

In Heaven (therefore in the Kingdom) the most highly prized character is humility. Read this. It's what Rick Joyner was told during his visitations to Heaven about humility:⁴

"I could not make out what I was seeing, because the glory being emitted from my armor made it difficult to see into the darkness. I asked Wisdom to give me something to cover my armor with so I could see it. He then gave me a very plain mantle to put on. "What is this?" I inquired, a little insulted by its drabness. "Humility," said Wisdom. "You will not be able to see very well without it." Reluctantly I put it on and immediately I saw many things that I could not see before. I looked toward the valley and the movement I had seen. To my astonishment there was an entire division of the enemy horde that was waiting to ambush anyone who ventures from the mountain. "What army is that?" I asked, "and how did they escape the battle intact?"

"That is Pride," explained Wisdom. "That is the hardest enemy to see after you have been in the glory. Those who refuse to put on this cloak will suffer much at the hands of this most devious enemy."

As I looked back at the mountain I saw many of the glorious warriors crossing the plain to attack the remnants of the enemy horde. None of them were wearing the cloaks of humility and they had not seen the enemy that was ready to attack them from their rear. I started to run out to stop them, but Wisdom restrained me. "You cannot stop this," he said. "Only the soldiers who wear this cloak will recognize your authority..."

I then looked at myself. I still had the old mantle of humility on, with the armor under it. I felt both foul and crude standing before those who were so regal and beautiful. I began to think that I was in serious trouble if I was going to appear before the Lord like this. Like the eagles, my old acquaintance could understand my thoughts, and he replied to them:

"Those who come here wearing that mantle have nothing to fear. That mantle is the highest rank of honor, and it is why they all bowed to you while you passed."

"I did not notice anyone bowing to me," I replied, a bit disconcerted.

"It is not improper," he continued. "Here we show each other the respect that is due. Even the angels serve us here, but only our God and His Christ are worshiped."

The second most important character is meekness. What's that? It's not being wishy-washy and weak as people think it means. In the Kingdom this is what I've been taught by the Spirit that it means: 'To refrain from using power and authority until it's necessary'.

This means that a son can have great power and authority, but because of humility, it's not flaunted or misused. Flaunting power and authority is a form of pride which has no place in the Kingdom. Jesus operated in humility. For example: He said to his disciples when he prevented them from defending him from being arrested by the soldiers, "Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will immediately provide me with more than twelve legions⁵ of angels?"⁶ He put aside his authority and submitted to Father's will and quietly spoke of what he had the ability to do.

Our King cannot trust soldiers to use the power and authority of sons if they aren't humble and meek. This is why Gideon was told to select only those soldiers who were ready, and to reject the rest.
