

Covenantal not Contractual

(Prophetic message recorded on the 11th July 2020)

Question: Lord, you've been teaching some of your people around the world that our transactions between ourselves and others should be covenantal and not contractual, so that it's symbiotic. What is it that you want us to know about that?

Message

“Yes, symbiotic. You know that. You understand that that means that both parties benefit – it's mutual. These are the relationships, these are the transactions I want you to have with others, especially with your brothers and sisters in the Kingdom. This is totally different to the world system. The world system is contractual, and the contract is basically a greedy transaction. It may not sound like it, but the heart attitude of each person in the contract is that they want to get as much out of it as possible to benefit themselves, which ultimately means that the other person loses some benefits. Now, this is not always the case, but it's the mindset and it's the heart attitude of the society in which you live. It's no longer an honourable society. It's no longer a loving society that oozes with my love for one another. It's a “Get me as much as I can” society. This is not the way the Kingdom works.

You must learn to operate in Kingdom fashion. This is part of the extended training that I'm bringing to my people on the Earth. It's nothing really new, but it's something that's been lost, and as my people have imbibed, by osmosis, the attitudes and cares of society, I have to reprogram them. So I'm speaking this out around the world for those who will listen. It is pretty simple. When you're in a transaction with another person, your attitude must be that both of you benefit at the maximum level, even if that means you have to give more than the other person. Put yourself out. If you don't put yourself out (which you know is not what you have to do every single time), if you don't put yourself out some of the time, you're exhibiting self-centredness, and there's no place for ‘self’ in the Kingdom. True, you look after yourself, but self-centredness is looking after yourself at the expense of other people and principles.

Now, by covenantal, that's just a word I've chosen to use because you actually don't enter into a covenant with a person, in the fashion of ancient times. But I want you to see it not as a contract any more – i.e. see it with the heart of a covenant person. Now, those covenants that you make with others are not to be ‘out dated’ and seen as ancient covenants. That's the wrong concept. This is modern times and I'm looking for a heart attitude. I'm not looking for legalism which says it must be a contract and it must be done this way or that way, and it must be stuck to or there's death if you break the covenant. No, put that aside. Wipe that from your mind and approach it as I said, and as you know, symbiotically, a transaction that is mutually beneficial. It will bless my heart if you move more and more into this way of operating and you demonstrate it to the rest of society. They may think you're a fool for doing it, but ‘stick to your guns’ because if you operate that way with other people, I will ‘pick up the slack’. Anything that is detrimental to you, anything that you lose out of it, I will organize for it to be supplied, or, I will change the circumstances so it doesn't need to be supplied in the first place.

Remember, the Kingdom must be your resource supply, not yourself, not your own nous, your own skills, your own knowledge. You are to rely completely on the Kingdom to meet all your needs in every area. Now, this is relevant for Australia as well. Australia is behind many of the other western countries. There is less of a battle for you to work covenantally, but it will still be hard. There will be opposition within yourself. There will be opposition from other believers. There will be opposition from your family. There may even be opposition from the bank and financial institutions. It will come from all directions, but like everything in the Kingdom, this is a Kingdom priority, and that's the way you are to move. That's the way you are to operate. I am with you in this. If you can't do this, let it be known that you're relying on your own abilities and not on my ability to meet all your needs.

Cast off the mindsets that you currently have about “me, me, me, me, me” and about the fear of being diddled in a contract. Listen to Me. Ask Me questions. Follow my instructions. Operate covenantally and you will see benefits, benefits that will open doors for you, and benefits that will shock you by the wonder that comes out of your transactions.”

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. New members are being identified and trained all the time. our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia. Since 2017 CCOP has been expanded to function as a network of prophetic voices.
