

The King's Shock-troops

(Prophetic message recorded on the 6th & 21st August 2020)

Question: Lord, we know that we're in a spiritual war. We know that we're in your army and you've been creating SAS-style warriors<sup>1</sup> in Australia for some time. What is it that you want us to know about this?

“Yes, it has been going on for some time now, but these warriors, these soldiers of mine are few and far between. There's rigorous training they've got to go through. They have to be transformed into shock-troops. They have to be strengthened and stabilised, made 'tough as nails', to oppose the attacks and the advances of the enemy. These don't shirk at skirmishes that come their way. The training program has been vigorous and it has been ongoing because it takes quite a long time for the training to be successful. That's because I'm working with human beings.

The biggest problem I've had to face is their insecurities and their woundedness – the damages that's been done by life. These have stymied the work that I've had to do in their lives. It's slowed it down, but I am making progress. Even though the numbers are small, I am pleased with the development that has happened. They are beginning to be more committed. They are starting to see the plans that I have placed before them as essential for their life's work. They have committed themselves to being these troops. They have put aside their lives, their families, their vocations and their personal lives, and committed themselves to this, just like Australia's SAS soldiers do when they train and prepare to be inducted into that unit.

I am proud of these. I know they are doubting themselves in areas. I know they have failed in many of their tests, but they have 'true grit'. They repent of their weaknesses and turn towards my way of doing things, put their failures behind them, and with 'faces like flint', 'hard as nails', they move forward to be successful and pass the fail tests to be in my elite unit.

I have called many to be these troops, but like Gideon, I've had to weed many out because they weren't totally committed. The cares of life have drawn them away. They have been lackadaisical in the training that I have given them. But the ones who are under training at the moment are making good progress – slow, but good progress.

I will be calling many more to undergo this training. I have time. I'm not pressured at this juncture by a timeframe. That's because these are advanced troops, the ones who go before the rest of my army. They will plunder the territory of the enemy and make many ways for my army to move forward. These are the real 'workhorses', because of their commitment and their tenacity and their dogged focusness on my plans. They know I am the General, the Supreme Commander, and they are totally committed to my voice. They love me and they obey, not just comply. They carry out my plans to the best of their abilities, relying on me and my Spirit to guide them and to empower them.

There are many more in the divisions of my army that I am preparing for the battles ahead, the spiritual battles. I am always assessing the hearts of my people, to see where their allegiance lies, and then drawing them into the various divisions of my army. My biggest problem, of course, is that many of my people don't think they're in an army. They're too busy enjoying their lives, singing and dancing and feasting and enjoying being in my family. There is nothing wrong with this, but like the natural, people in the towns and the cities carry out their lives while the armed forces and the militia train and defend from the attacks of the enemy. I have my family, my large family, and I have this nation of Australia that needs protection.

Those who know they're in a battle, who know they are warriors in my army, are volunteering to join and committing themselves to it. Not everybody will be my shock-troops. Not everyone will be my elite warriors, but like Nehemiah and the Israelis rebuilding their city, every one of my people needs to be a soldier in their mind and in their skill set. No one – and I mean no one in my Kingdom can afford not to be martial in their function because the enemy attacks individuals, not just an army. He attacks stragglers, strayers, the weak and the wounded. This is why you all have to have the ability to attack and to defend, otherwise the enemy will take you out and you will become his property.

So my call continues to go out, "Volunteer. Step up. Join my elite troops. Join my SAS troops. Join my vanguard, but you must be committed".

In finishing, remember that Australia is my nation, and my people who are in it are called to defend it in the spirit realm, to work in the natural realm for the extension of my Kingdom, to expand it. That has to be the focus of my people, not their lives. The Kingdom and my plans must be foremost in their mind and guiding them day by day."

"These are ready, in rank and file, to move forward with me, with new assignments. Although they are few, like Gideon's army, they are effective. They will propel my Kingdom forward in this nation. They will impact lives. They will bring about things in the spiritual atmosphere that have not been done before. They will achieve great things, and the reason for this is they are completely dedicated to me and being about my business in their lives in Australia. Their focus is on seeing my plans fulfilled. Their lives belong to me. They have totally surrendered to me. Although they live in Australian society and work and have families, their mind, their will and their heart are focused on me. They are attentive to my commands, my instructions. They are sensitive to the move of my Spirit, as he draws them into areas that they are to operate in. They aren't afraid to step out for me, to do and to speak as I show them.

These are mature enough to operate under their own recognizance and do what they know I want them to do, rather than what they think I might want them to do. These speak for me and act for me. I trust them. Many don't know that I trust them, but I do, and it gives me great pleasure. I am filled with joy as I see them do what they do, as they move forward. I see them as an army. They don't see themselves like this because they are spread around throughout the nation, here and there. However, in the spirit, from my perspective, they are an advancing army. They are bringing restoration to the planet and to the nation, and to the lives of people, because they are driving back the impact of the enemy and The Fall wherever they go. Although they are achieving much, they have still a great deal to learn. There is always more to know – always.

So I call these shock-troops because they're going ahead and they're making a way for the rest of my people to follow. They are a shock to the enemy because my people have been so complacent, so lackadaisical, so ineffective for so long, that it has been shocking for the enemy's army to see my regiments. Now, this shock will not cause them to give up. In fact, it will infuriate them so much more, that they will be even more dangerous. But my advance troops have learned to trust me, to totally trust me, and me only. They trust no one else, and they rely on no one else. Nothing is more important to them than being aligned with what I want them to do. They have learnt how to operate spiritually, as a soldier in the army of Heaven, and this has given them great advantage, although it means the attacks are greater. They withstand them because of their trust in me. Their trust is implicit. They are not shaken. Even when they have failures, their trust doesn't waiver. They recognise that it is their flesh, their soul and their mind that are their weak links which have caused them to falter, and they work on those areas to keep themselves in alignment with me.

I am pleased for Australia because their work will bring about change. But I send out a call to the rest of my people to join rank, to go through your processes of infantry training, of martial training, of combat training, because without this you will not be able to be effective, and your future is not assured. I have been calling for quite a long time, so join us. Life is exciting in the Kingdom, and it's even more exciting in my front-line troops"

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. New members are being identified and trained all the time. our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia. Since 2017 CCOP has been expanded to function as a network of prophetic voices.
