

We are to Give Abundantly of Everything

Why are so many followers of Jesus so stingy. Why have we in the past given with regret, dishonour, in an ungenerous manner, when we have the supplier of all our needs the head of our family. Why can't we give and trust our Father to resupply what we give away.

I've recently had my time redeemed by my heavenly supplier. I was required to do a course, which was being presented over two days, before I could move on in my vocation. I told my Father that I couldn't afford to waste 2 days and asked for him to redeem my time. I thought he would allow me to complete my required tasks for the week in rapid time so the two days I missed would be nullified. Instead, when I turned up to the course I was singled out with a group who were to do it in only one day – and we did. Time was redeemed by my supplier, but not how I thought it would occur.

Here's our King's instructions on how he wants us to give abundantly of everything because he's our supplier who enables that to happen:

“Give abundantly. Feel that you are rich.

Have no mean thought in your heart.

Of love, of thought, of all you have, give, give, give.

You are followers of the world's greatest giver. Give of time, of personal ease and comfort, of rest, of fame, of healing, of power, of sympathy, of all these and many more.

Learn this lesson and you will become a great power to help others and to do mighty things.”¹
