

Carnal Triggers Prevent Victory

It's all up to us. Yes, you and me. As sons, we are responsible for our lives in every area.

This could be a wake-up call for some, because our society has taught us that everything negative is someone else's fault. Because we have not fully come out of the world system, we have allowed it to filter into our lives, so that we operate the world's way, not Heaven's way. Our tendency these days is to look for someone to blame for everything 'bad' that happens. Our society's move into litigious recompense is mostly to blame (in my view). This attitude is wrong for sons.

We need to start taking responsibility for ourselves in all areas of our lives, and that includes how we react to situations, rather than responding to them. When we react – even in a small way – we've been triggered by something in our soul or our mind. These need to be dealt with so we continue to become more righteous in the way we live. Even through we are consecrated by the blood sacrifice of The Son, our lives need to become more like his as we imitate him as our role model.

There's no excuse for not cleaning up our lives, and there's no excuse for expecting others to do it for us. It's our life, and we're responsible to the King for how we live it.

Most of us are trapped in unrighteous areas of our live which we can't break free of. The main reason is our own weakness, but the other is that we haven't dealt with what triggers us to operate unrighteously. From my experience, the only real way to get success in eliminating these is to identify them, work on resisting them by stopping them immediately we detect them, but also getting the Spirit's help. This extra help happens when we spend time in intimacy, in the spirit, in Father or our King's presence, so the Spirit can clean us up from the inside-out. This is a continuing, never-ending process for the entirety of our lives once we come into the Kingdom.

Here's our Sovereign's mind on this matter:

“You have often been urged by My Spirit to deal with unholy attitudes and motives. Opportunities will come around again for you to do the internal work necessary to overcome and be done with the carnal triggers that keep you from total victory. Examine yourself to see where you continue to be trapped, and make a deliberate decision to respond in ways that are pleasing in My sight.”¹
