

Not the Time to be Complacent

No! This is not the time to be complacent at all.

We are being roused to attend the ‘call to arms’ at this time in the new era of the Kingdom. We are being prepared for warfare training, and therefore, we need to be alert and on our guard. Those who doze or sleep will be easy prey for the enemy’s minions who are becoming more active in their capture of saints.

Our King and the Commander of the army recently warning us not to be complacent:

“In a vision I could see large groups of people half asleep, yawning and stretching as they tried to wake up. Many of them were so groggy that they couldn't get on their feet. The enemy had drugged them with complacency. Then, some of them began to deliberately shake their hands, arms and legs to get life flowing again. It seemed as though their eyes were still stuck shut, but they were doing what they could to wake up and feel alive. Others just rolled over and went back to sleep.”<sup>1</sup>

Spiritual sleep is the same as going to battle in the natural without any weaponry to protect yourself.

Wake up everyone!
