

Is SSM Destroying the Foundations of our Society?

With so much hysteria about same-sex-marriage going around at the moment because of the government's postal vote, I wonder if our emphasis is really that level-headed. Many Christians are opposed to SSM because they believe, if introduced, it will destroy the foundation of our society. But will it?

The real question that needs to be asked is: "Is marriage the foundation of society?" It can't destroy society if it's not.

The answer to this needs some qualification. Is what Christians are really thinking: "Marriage is the foundation of a Christian society". That produces a different question all together, and the answer is also radically different.

Or, do they really mean: "Marriage is the foundation of a stable society" .

Having been around during the 1960's when the move to destroy all societal and religious taboos openly began, I have noticed quite a number of things which have been insidiously destroying our Australian society since that time. Some of these are:

- Do your own thing
- Sexual promiscuity
- Co-habiting
- Approval of de facto relationships
- Spousal unfaithfulness
- Easy divorce
- Acceptance of gay lifestyle
- Greed – The drive to retire early and very rich
- Greed – Obscene CEO salaries
- Greed – Pushing stockholder profits
- Greed – High charges for very little servicing
- Laziness
- Poor work ethic
- Avoidance of hard work
- Socialism
- The welfare state
- Government reliance
- Not taking responsibility for actions
- Litigious attitude to impacting circumstances
- Union bullying and blackmail
- Unbridled anger
- Unrighteous laws
- School indoctrination
- Militant rights movements
- Lawlessness

You see, our society has been eroding around us while we 'slept on the job'. As the righteous "light of the world", we have been silent in our deliberations with society and we haven't affirmed our acceptance of righteous living because of 'the fear of man'. Not only that, but we have talked to people from a religious perspective and used religious-speak which alienated them from our viewpoints. Add to this the fact that many, many of us have approved of these unrighteous actions, so we rally can't complain about "the terrible state of society”.

Truly, SSM is just another step down the road of evil in our society which has lost many of its supporting pillars that hold it together in stability and prosperity.

Revival isn't Australia's answer. Righteous living and speaking saints is the answer.
