

War in Australia is a Possibility

On the 4th April 2016 CCOP asked the Lord the following question to get his counsel: “Lord, you gave us a picture of an armed conflict scene. What do you want us to know about that?”

This was his response, transcribed from a smart phone recording:

“Wars come and wars go, but I am the stable one, I am the Eternal One. I am always here. I am always working in the background. Nothing happens that I don't know about it, that is not within my plans.

Consider warfare in Australia. Consider it's a possibility. Consider that picture as a wake-up call, that it is not inevitable that it will happen here in Australia, but that it is a possibility depending on the way your nation travels. Turn away from evil. Turn away from unrighteousness and turn to my ways. My desire is to bless this nation, but as with the Old Testament nations, I brought other nations in and there was war - and this can happen in Australia. But it's all up to the people. It's all up to you.

I lay that before you as a possibility. It's your choice. Remember, everything that happens to a nation and to individuals is a result of the choices they make. So I say to you this day, make the right choices. It's all up to you.”
