

Where is the Apostolic Revelation Heading?

To understand the background to these notes you'll need to have read John Alleys two books.

- "The Apostolic Revelation" (2002)
- "The Spirit Of Sonship, An Apostolic Grace" (2008)

John Kingsley Alley spoke at the Apostolic Leadership Summit in South Africa in 2017 on the Apostolic Revelation he has received, right up to his current understanding.

- "Apostolic Summit 2017 - Session 4" (John Alley)

Here are a number of important points in his talk:

- The prophetic takes time to be fulfilled – It took 15 years for the word he received on the apostolic to begin. The shift from that took another 15 years to take place.
- His main revelation was: We are all to be apostolic people.
- After he was given the information personally by the Lord he spent months search the Bible to find the content to teach – The answers came in 'drips and drabs' because of his preconceived ideas.
- We are at the beginning of this revelation, not the fulfilment.
- Reformation is still going on – we haven't arrived yet, despite the Pentecostal and Charismatic renewals.
- Individualism has been a problem for us.
- The apostolic is on the inside – It's in the heart and in relationships.
- Relationships is about being joined to one another.
- We're actually in a 'pre-Christian' society – Genuine Christianity hasn't manifested yet.
- Thinking imminence (the imminent return of Jesus) held back his understanding.
- Until the church is mature Jesus can't return – That's in unity and the knowledge of Christ.¹
- Spiritual maturity requires relational maturity – e.g. at rest, no striving, not easily offended, no resentment, no competition, etc.
- We must mature in agapē also.
- Our job is to maintain relationships.
- At Jesus' baptism he was given the Spirit without limit²
- Jesus operated in the 7-fold spirits³.
 - The Spirit of the Lord
 - The Spirit of wisdom
 - The Spirit of understanding
 - The Spirit of counsel and might
 - The Spirit of knowledge
 - The Spirit of fear of the Lord

1 – Ephesians 4:13

2 – John 3:34 (The Living Bible)

3 – Isaiah 11:2

- Jesus was a man, full of the Spirit – He functioned out of full submission to Father, not his deity⁴.
- The release of apostles in fullness hasn't happened yet – the coming mature ones will operate in more grace and authority.
- This will take a long time to happen – It's a multi-generational work.
- The Spirit of Understanding is urgently needed for this reformation to proceed.
- The 7 spirits will eventually rest on the church in fullness – Only when we are ONE.
- Apostolic people are built on “love one another” – One heart, one mind, plus the grace to be in unity.
- Apostles must push this.
- Big ministries are not apostolic by definition.
- Find the grace, the anointing to build community – This will lead to more functioning in understanding (an anointing).
- Unity brings a rich relationship between leaders and members.
- Great power means more accountability.
- Sonship and community will be the engine of the apostolic.
- Become a son before teaching sonship.
- Become emotionally attached to a spiritual father – love him and belong to him. Seeing him is sweet.
- There's strength in this relationship.
- Join to a father because you know it's right – Not because you've found the perfect one.
- You'll never find a perfect father – So, walk by faith.
- Serve a spiritual father no matter what their age is.
- Grace flows to those who walk as sons to a spiritual father.
- There is no sonship without giving the heart – This is what Jesus did.
- Conformed to the image of Christ – Submit to, honour and serve a spiritual father.
- Father-son relationship – This is the new wineskin.
- This is the phase of the reformation now – This enables us to enter into spiritual maturity.
- Levels of revelation
 - Governmental – already happening
 - Relational (esp. fathers and sons) – soon
 - 7-fold anointing – in the future
- This is what is to come for us:
 1. Full Apostolic authority. Then,
 2. The proper restoration of the 5-fold. Then,
 3. The maturity of the ekklesia. Then,
 4. Revealing God to the nations – his nature. And then,
 5. Jesus can come.
