

Reversing Curses Testimony (Graham Cooke)

"One of my favourite encounters was, I was on a plane going from one place to another – ‘cause planes generally do that – and sat next to this guy who wouldn't talk to me wouldn't look at me until we had taken off. As soon as the undercarriage has gone back up into the plane, he turns to me and says, “I'm a warlock, I'm part of a coven, and I have an assignment against you to curse your life and your ministry. Last night we did a blood ritual and we sacrificed, and I'm here to curse you”. So I said, “Oh, cool. Hang on a minute”. So I stood up and reached into the overhead compartment and got a notebook out, and said, “OK. Let's have it, ‘cause I have a vested interest in this. I have a prophecy which says that I can turn every curse into a blessing. I'm about to get a prophecy from the Lord. I'm going to have to reverse engineer it. It's going to be a word for my life. I'm excited”. So he starts to curse me and stuff. After about 10 minutes I'm getting annoyed. And so another 10 minutes goes on and I stopped taking notes. I said, “Hang on a minute. Hang on a minute. Dude..this is rubbish. I'm really disappointed. I was really excited when you introduced yourself, and now, to be honest, I'm annoyed. There is not much blessing I'm going to get from that. Listen, I'll tell you what. I'm going to go back and go to the rest room and get a Coke and – do you want a Coke by the way? I'm going to talk to the flight attendants for a while. I'll give you half an hour, then I'll come back and we can start again, eh”. So I gave him half an hour and I came back and sat down and said, “OK. Dude, I'm ready. Lay it on me”. And he starts, and it's not that much better, to be honest. So I took notes and I read it back to him. “So you said this, right? And you said this, right? There's no chance you might want to upgrade this in any way?” And he's going, “No”. So I said, “How long have you been a Satanist?” He said, “About 20 years”. Well, I said, “You're not a very good one, eh? Because I've got a prophetic word from the Father which says he's going to turn every curse into a blessing. I ain't gonna get much out of that!” I have a nephew that's, like, 7 years old, could give me a better word than that.” I said, “Anyway, you're on this plane not because you got an assignment against me, but because, actually, I have an assignment for you. I have a word for you from the Lord, “I'm coming to get you”.” So, he reaches up and presses the flight attendant's button and gets his seat reassigned. But we're only 1 hour into a 5-hour flight, locked in a steel tube, at an unnatural height. Ain't no way he's getting away. So I made a point of every hour, I did a circuit around the plane and clocked him. “Dude (pointing his finger at him). You're going to be on my team. My team. He, he. You're so ‘toast’.

Scripture calls that vengeance. Isaiah 61 – You can't have favour without vengeance. Jesus's come to put favour into our lives, permanently, and to teach us how to get revenge. What does vengeance look like? It looks like this: Whatever the enemy has done in your life, however he's held you back, held you down, whatever he's had over you, God not only delivers you from that, but he gives you a ministry in the very area where you were always a victim. So now, when you start to deliver people from what you were once held captive by, that's revenge. You get to rub his face in it, for the rest of your life."
