

Change to the Paradigm of the Kingdom

There are those who decry our move out of the religious system into life in the Kingdom as sons saying it's not the established tradition of the church. Many others call it a heresy, a dangerous move away from 'the ancient path'.

Really?

Quite some time ago Henry Falcone¹ received the following rhema download: "You are not going to Pastor as you used to pastor. I don't want you to build a church, I don't want you to build a ministry, but I want you to establish the Kingdom of God in men's hearts. Bring them to me!"² The result of complying with this rhema word completely changed his life.

Henry responded that he couldn't bring anyone into the Kingdom when he hadn't experienced it. He asked for the Kingdom to be a reality for him NOW. He also asked to be taught the ways of the Kingdom.

He described what needed to be done in the following way:

"It has been quite a change for me, and it required that all my old religious thinking and training had to be transformed into the truth of the Kingdom. Much of my religious understanding had to be removed from me and what was left had to be re understood in the true and deep wisdom of the Holy Spirit.

The kingdom of God reality has to be revealed in a heart ready and prepared to receive it and that will give God the good heart soil for it to grow in. This caused me to seek out the Lord much more on these truths and he led me to others that have that reality more fully in their lives and to learn from them as well. Those men and women of God further down the road helped me see and to continue on in the journey.

*Every day our life is to become fuller with the pure holy love of God as we seek Him as our most vital need. We are to seek Him and the Kingdom first and foremost. The Lord sees the state of his church especially here in America and He shares His burden of intercession with those who can see and have the Kingdom of God burning in their hearts."*³

On another occasion in prayer, our King told him not to pray for revival, and to not even to use the term. He was told to pray for a spiritual revolution in the hearts of God's people. These days he understands why he was told this.

There was more radical change to come for him. Henry describes his new understanding:

"The religious system we all were trained under can never bring you to the receiving or reality of true Kingdom of God life in your heart. It can never make us one. It allows you to work for God on your terms and to seek him on your terms, but never really changes us into the fullness and maturity of life that God desires.

Matter of fact, I think the Lord allows religious systems to exist for one purpose, not to bring us kingdom life, but to show us how there is no life in religion. "I know your works..." Religious life may try to make you better people. It tries to make good church members, but those members have little or no reality of the Kingdom of God life that Jesus came for us to live in by the power of the Holy Spirit.

The power and glory of God that is to be seen in His temple is not there. His people may have a form of godliness in them, but it truly denies the power of God in reality of His kingdom. Why are there so little numbers of people who truly live a Spirit-filled and Spirit-led life manifesting the Kingdom of God wherever they go?

So many ministers and people talk about the glory, and talk about the power, and even desire to have it, but they may never obtain it, because the character and quality of the Spirit life they seek is not in a religious system of church works or activities.

True Kingdom life is only found in the person of Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit fully working in man's heart. This is the commission of the Lord, "To establish the Kingdom of God in men's hearts". This is what true discipleship means, and Jesus asked us to make disciples in the nations. The kingdom of God is manifested in the hearts of all that truly find him.

Religion and the Babylonian church systems that infiltrated the church allows you to keep your life and serve God in your own efforts and time. In it, you can give God what you want to, when you want to, and you keep control over your life. You may be saved because of the free gift of Christ, but Christ's Kingdom life is not in you to do the works he did, nor does it reflect the Glory of God as God would desire.

The gifts of the spirit may operate in some and even churches and ministries. They may even do big meetings and see many great things, but the true character and life in the Holy Spirit of God and His pure holy love is hardly seen...

Many will try to build something for God. Many will try to build themselves a name. Many will try to build their towers that reach into heaven in their own strength. Many are deceived into building another Babel instead of God's kingdom on Earth.

Many will try to become something for God in His name but, in their own power, instead of God becoming something in them as true ambassadors of His Kingdom in His power. Yet it is to those people Jesus stands at the door in the church and is knocking so he can come in and says, "I know your works, they are even more now than when you started". (That is the heart or motives of so much activity being done in the Christian church today in His name, build something for God.)" ⁴
