The board of Brindabella Christian College has suddenly sacked the school's principal and warned parents "the devil has his sights on Christian education" as the federal government prepares to legislate for same-sex marriage.

Ousted principal Bruce Handley has taken the school's board to the Fair Work Commission after being booted early this month.

His firing came after a four-page statement was sent to Brindabella parents in September urging a "no" vote in the same-sex marriage

Brindabella Christian College parents and staff raise governance concerns

Emily Baker

Parents and staff at Brindabella Christian College have raised fresh concerns about the school's governance following the dramatic sacking of principal Bruce Handley – the school's third principal in about as many years.

Mr Handley's three-year contract was terminated a year early after a controversial four-page letter urging a "no" vote in the same-sex marriage survey was sent under his name.

Church: Out with George Washington, In With 'Mother' God

BY LEO HOHMANN/WND.COM

NOVEMBER 02, 2017

“That's right, George Washington himself was one of the founding members of Christ Church, which is affiliated with the Episcopal Church USA. He purchased pew No. 5 when the church opened in 1773 and attended for more than 20 years whenever he rode north from Mount Vernon to do business in town. But on Sunday, the church announced it will soon be removing a memorial plaque placed along the front wall in Washington's honor, saying he has become so controversial that his plaque is "chasing away would-be parishioners", the Washington Times reports. →

The Episcopal Church USA has given itself over to a "Mother Earth" form of Christianity that preaches tolerance and inclusivity for everything except what some might consider traditional, biblical Christianity. The Christ Church of Alexandria is so inclusive that it does not have a single male pastor listed on its website. All four are women. One of them, the Rev. Ann Gillespie, is a former Hollywood actress who recently closed a sermon with a new version of the Apostle's Creed. It starts out, "I believe in God, our Mother Bear, source of all being", and it refers to the Virgin Mary as "the bad-ass womanist liberation theologian, Mary".

Chaos In The Church: Non-Binary Deacons, Drag Shows & Transgender Baptisms

BY PNW STAFF NOVEMBER 02, 2017

“The Methodist Deacon M. Barclay is now accepted as a non-binary Deacon in Chicago, which means that she prefers the pronoun "they" rather than "she" and doesn't identify as either gender. In the Methodist Church, there are two orders of ministry: deacons and presbyters. Methodist churches are not the only protestant denominations that are starting to welcome the gender-confused into leadership roles. The First Baptist Church of Greenville began accepting LGBTQ ministers and weddings in 2015. It broke away from the Southern Baptist Convention in the 1990s but is now a part of Cooperative Baptist Fellowship...

The use of gender neutral pronouns and a discreetly held gender disorder may be exposing cracks in the Biblical nature of several protestant churches, but others have taken transgenderism much further. Sexualized drag shows, often aimed at children and teens from grades 6 to 12, are now being conducted in churches and billed as holiday events aimed at building tolerance.”

CAL THOMAS WARNS ABOUT MIXING POLITICS, RELIGION

'There's a lot of effort in this country to get evangelicals off their focus on Jesus of Nazareth'

Published: 11/14/2017 at 8:27 PM

GREG COROMBOS

“I was vice president of Moral Majority. I was there. We thought we were going to organize conservative evangelicals and conservative Catholics and Orthodox Jews into a voting bloc that would give trickle-down morality from Washington. It didn't work because none of that changes the human heart. The gospel of Jesus Christ changes human hearts, and when hearts are changed, nations are changed", said Thomas.

So what is the proper role of Christians in the public square? Thomas says there are some things they should be doing. "We should vote. We should pray for those in authority...

but we shouldn't expect more from government than it can deliver", said Thomas. What believers should not do, according to Thomas, is mistake earth for their permanent home.

"This is not our kingdom. This is not where we're going to spend eternity. The world is going in the direction that the scriptures forecast. These people who say they're going to make the world a better place, no you're not. That's left up to Jesus when he returns"."

Cal's theology of 'Heaven is our home', plus the Gospel of Salvation, will encourage evangelicals to continue to be ineffective as 'lights' to the world.

Anti-Christ Drama Messiah Is Coming to Netflix in 2019

■ B. ALAN ORANGE 11.16.2017

“The Messiah is coming in 2019. Anyone who has followed the ongoing drama surrounding Maitreya, whom many believe to be the true anti-Christ, will surely be interested in the new drama just announced at Netflix. It's a story no network would touch, due to its controversial nature. And perhaps it will work better as a streaming series, as this is the type of story that will suck you in and won't let go if done right. It's a serious look at religion and its followers done in a very serious way. And it's going to be intense and gripping, to say the least.

"Messiah will chronicle the modern world's reaction to a man who first appears in the Middle East creating a groundswell of followers around him claiming he is the Messiah. Is he sent from God or is he a dangerous fraud bent on dismantling the world's geopolitical order? In ten hour-long episodes, the story unfolds from multiple points of view, including a young CIA agent, an Israeli Shin Bet officer, a Latino preacher and his Texan daughter, a Palestinian refugee and the media, among others".
