

BOOK: The Pure Word

Laurence Smart
4-2-2018
(www.CanberraForerunners.org)

Here's one way to be reprogrammed from religious teaching

Paperback only at the moment

NOTE: Not yet available at Amazon.com.au or
Koorong

Book Information

“The Pure Word is an unprecedented New Testament translation, 20-years in the making, that reveals the original depths of meaning from the original time of Christ Koine-Greek records. Discover why many consider The Pure Word an invaluable tool to be used alongside your favorite version of the bible to experience deeper scriptural meaning that has never before been achievable in English...

The Greek spoken
& written by
1st Century Jews

English is an imprecise language that can easily cause misunderstanding. In contrast, one of the most complete languages that clarifies intent is Koine Greek, so it's no surprise that this the language chosen in the first century to record the books of the New Testament. In order to bring more depth of understanding to the scriptures, it's common practice for pastors and theologians to use the original Greek writings to reveal the full depth-of-meaning within the New Testament that has been lost in virtually all available English translations. This is known as Hermeneutics; the academic methodology of interpreting text...

After 20 years of research and work to develop more accurate processes for English translation, The Pure Word now offers the world's first and only hermeneutics-based monadic Greek to English translation that can save scholars, pastors and Bible students from the countless hours needed to re-translate the original Greek meanings for all 27 books of the New Testament. As a result, The Pure Word is not intended to replace your preferred version of the Bible, but rather to be used alongside it by anyone wanting to dive deeper into the New Testament scriptures.”

03:19

COPYRIGHT

*All quotes are copyrighted to the authors credited.
This document is free to copy, republish and distribute, but only 'as is'.
All Canberra Forerunner documents are licensed under*

Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 3.0 Unported License