

MESSAGE: Where Are You Taking Us?

(Prophetic message 21-3-2018)

As sons, our King put out the challenge to ask him where he was taking us as a nation. This is his firm reply to sons who are supposed to be in communion with him through oneness and know what's going on.

“Haven’t you seen? Haven’t you heard? Are you not keeping your ears to the ground and listening? I have been speaking non-stop, but who is listening? I have been speaking through my prophets to this nation. I have been speaking to your hearts, and I have been speaking to your souls, and I have been speaking to your spirits, but are you listening?

You ask me where I am taking you, Australia. It should be very plain by now. Those who are attuned to hearing from me, those who are aligned with me, know where we’re going – we’re going for glory; we’re going for the upper echelon; we’re reaching high. You should be too! There is no need to be content with being ‘the tail’¹, when you could be ‘the head’. Yes, you can boast about what Australia has done here, there, in sports and medals and achievements. But what about your hearts? Are your hearts aligned with me so that I can draw you – you, yes you – I’m talking to you – you, individuals.

You will not know where I am taking Australia when you don’t know where I’m taking you, because Australia is a conglomerate of people. I am taking the whole nation, the people. I’m not taking an entity, a flag. I am taking a people group. Yes, Australia, I am taking you forward and upward, onward. There are great plans I have for you; there are great things that you need to achieve. Aspire to these! In your workplace, work with excellence. In your conversations with people, speak righteously. In your time with me, ask me, question me, what am I doing, and I will tell you. I will tell you what I’m doing in your life, I’ll tell you what I’m doing in your family’s life. I will tell you what I’m doing in the nation.

Australia, I have told you to wake up, and I reiterate that statement now. Wake up from your doldrums; wake up from your silence; wake up from the way you just move around, not knowing where you’re going and what you’re doing. This is ridiculous! How can a modern nation, how can believers in me, how can my sons walk around like they’re in ‘la la land’? This is not good, Australia. I am taking you to the extreme. Are you ready for it? Are you ready for everything that I have for this nation? It appears not, because your hearts aren’t attuned with that.

Even amongst my people, there is a negative attitude that things are bad and they’re going to get worse, and “let’s get out of here” because our home’s in heaven. Rubbish! Ridiculous! You are to grow and develop as my sons. You are to work this ground; you are to work this nation by contributing with your full heart, in absolutely everything, so that this nation prospers, especially in the family. I’m really disappointed with the way families are not pressing forward. Parents are throwing up their hands and allowing their children to do what they like. There is no gravity about the fact that the next generation will take the reins of this nation, and therefore they need to be schooled, trained, prepared. How can this nation possibly move forward if parents are abdicating their duties. As one would say, “it beggars belief!” But there you have it. Here I am, trying to take this nation forward from glory to glory; from greatness to extreme greatness, and all I get is a head wind. I would like a tail wind that pushes me forward so I can achieve my goals ASAP.

So there you have it, Australia. Where am I taking you? I am advancing you to become a premier nation in the world. But it won’t be through your own efforts, it will be me working through you that will achieve that. But, of course, I can’t do that unless you are aligned with me. So change your hearts, change your attitudes. Roll up your sleeves and let’s get this nation where it’s supposed to be.”

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. New members are being identified and trained all the time. Our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. Our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. Our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia.
