

The Restoration of Families

In early July 2018 I had an instant vision of restored families. By 'instant' I mean, it was only in my spiritual eyes from a second or two. It was more like a moving picture than a vision, however, all the information was there. The understanding I received with the picture told the whole story.

I didn't see much, only families getting along nicely. I saw them living in peace and harmony with everyone honouring each other and deferring to each other. There was a 'glow' about them – not literally speaking. In my spirit I received the knowledge that families are going to be restored.

This was interesting spiritual information because it wasn't what I was expecting from the move of God. I was contemplating the spiritual transformation of society as God's main aim, but I was mistaken in my focus. He's interested in families, not just individuals and movements, and that's not from a church perspective. It's his idea. This intended move of his is in contrast to our Western society, where the family unit has been crumbling since the 1960s.

Almighty God created the family 'organism' and he had reasons for it. Before the Fall and before Christian religion, there was a 2-person, 'diecious' family which was commanded to have children. Restoration therefore, must include the restoration of the family unit. It appears that this is where it will begin manifesting.

The vision prompted this question in King Counsel, "What sort of revival are we to expect to see?". His answer is in the July 2018 prophetic message¹ from CCOP². The message is a sobering statement for all those who are praying for revival in the church.

Also, later in the same month there was an article in Charisma magazine in the very same topic. Here's the main download that was in the article:

"I want to blow My breath into the nostrils of every family member, great-grandparents down to the babies in the womb. I am about to make personal house calls in this nation. I am coming in 3-D technicolor straight to where you live. There are angels standing at attention with your personal addresses written on them that will be released to set up camp round about your dwelling place, to deliver family members far and near. Houses will be turned into homes."

*"May I blow My breath into your households? Prodigals will phone home. Missing children unable to be found for many years will be rescued by the breath of My Spirit! I have been patient in the past with your family members who have resisted Me. I have gently knocked on the door of their houses and hearts. But now I will huff and puff and blow the front door down! I'm coming in!"*³

So, start aligning with Heaven and desire to see families in Australia restored, especially your own. When there is a groundswell of desire in this area, Heaven will move in a big way to see it happen.
