

Cameo Message: September 2018

The message below was emailed to me by 'J', a member of our Prophetic Council team. I pass it on as an example of the standard of prophetic downloads sons are able to receive when they live fully in the life of the Kingdom. This is where Father is their sole source of supply, the Son is their beloved and Holy Spirit is their teacher and guide. This message shows that it's Father's great pleasure to release his wisdom, knowledge and understanding to those who live out of his secret place.

Embrace New Things and New Understandings of My Kingdom

(J's Prophetic Revelation – 1st September 2018)

"I am your life and your strength! By My hand I am increasing your vitality and strength in this timeframe. The new wine of My Spirit is being poured out in a vintage that you have not tasted of in times past. Be open to what I am doing. Incline your ear to what I am saying. Yield to My hand and become that new wineskin that is able to embrace new things and new understandings of My Kingdom that have not been clear to you before. There are things you have waited so long for, that you have been more comfortable with the waiting than [being] ready for the receiving. I am changing all of that. I am moving you from expectation to manifestation. From hope and longing to substance and reality. "
