

INVESTIGATION:

Is there
a hell?
(Part 6)

Summary from Last Month

- 1) There are many Christians we believe differently concerning eternal punishment. These are all based on Bible verses
- 2) Eternal Torment view – Non-believers are tormented in Hell for eternity.
- 3) Annihilationist view– Non-believers cease to exist.
- 4) Universalist view – Everyone has the opportunity to be saved through Jesus.

Summary from Last Month

- 5) Each view interprets scriptures of the conflicting views from their perspective.
- 6) Fundamentalism is based on subjective truth because we are subjective in how we interpret scripture.
- 7) Every reason that causes us to reject the love and grace of God are based on some kind of illusion, delusion, or lie that's been put on us or that we've taken into our heart.

Summary from Last Month

- 8) Eternal torment 'proof' scriptures in the OT are not about that at all.
- 9) Isaiah 66:24 – This is the image of Gehenna with slain people laying in the fire which Jesus referred to. They are dead people, not living people.
- 10) Daniel 12:2 – 'Everlasting' is translated from the Hebrew word olam which means 'an age', 'in the far distance', 'beyond the horizon' or 'a very distant time'. It does not mean 'for ever and ever'.

Summary from Last Month

- 11) Our behaviour imitates what we imagine God is like.
- 12) Our belief system mirrors what we imagine God is like.

Observation

Following their visit they become fearful and religious. Freedom, liberty & peace which are characteristics of the Kingdom are missing from their lives. They become focussed on evangelism, with little evidence of a positive life exhibited by Jesus.

Conclusion

Many have visited 'Hell' and see similar sights. It appears to be a real place.

conclusions

EVERYTHING

Here is someone's dream of 'Hell'.

Disturbing Prophetic Dream: 'I Saw Many Ministers and Prophets in Hell'

This may have been a warning to Jeremiah Johnson not to mistreat his prophetic gift as the gifted are also judged on how they use or misused their gift.

Dreams usually use theological constructs the person was familiar with. Not everything in a dream should be taken as factual.

He did not ask the question, “What are you wanting to tell me about the reality Hell?”

No information in this respect can be drawn from the dream.

Now we go to the next step of analysis
