

More on this Current Time in the Kingdom

(April 2019)

Following on from the prophetic insight I was given concerning the current season we are in,<sup>1</sup> a time when Forerunners are leading the vanguard for the restoration of all things, this is an update. More information is being received to cement this time in our understanding and to equip us with the knowledge we need to move forward without deviation. There will be glory rising alongside the rise of darkness, so we must focus on where we are going and make sure we are aligning with Heaven every step of the way. Read on!

KINGDOM NOTES

Mike Parsons

(extract from his teaching on the 16-3-2019)

“Jesus has reconciled only a certain, select group of people, according to what most of us have believed, in order to present us blameless and beyond reproach. We have limited the scope of this reconciliation, thinking it could not possibly include everyone and everything. Inevitably, different groups have had different opinions about who is in and who is out.

Everyone and everything is included. Jesus reconciled all things to Himself. If Jesus did it already, no one needs to do anything more. There is nothing we can do to make ourselves holy and blameless and beyond reproach because He already did it. He died our death, dealt with our separation and brought us back into a restored relationship...

The restoration of all things is based on the victory of the cross over all things that would hinder our reconciliation and restoration to relationship.

All judgment and justice are based on the victory of the cross over sin, death and the grave; every hindrance or legal obstacle is overcome. Jesus holds the keys of death and of Hades<sup>2</sup> and He is using them to unlock the door; not lock it. That is totally contradictory to some of our belief systems. God has opened access to everyone. The gates of the New Jerusalem are never shut. Everyone is included, no one excluded.

The power of the resurrection has defeated death (and it is what enables everything to be restored). The resurrection has overcome death and grace now reigns...

God is not holding anything related to sin against the world and is restoring all things, first to original condition and then to His original intention. God is looking for all things to grow and mature from their original condition to fulfil their potential, His original intention. Original condition is just the start: there is more to come!”<sup>3</sup>

Ron McGatlin

(extract from his teaching on the 7-3-2019)

“Some structures that have served greatly in the past spiritual era are now coming to an end. Their fruit will remain only in the enriched soil provided by their dissolving that will grow the new spiritual era from the seed of Christ.

Since the late 1980s, God has been speaking through called and chosen apostolic/prophetic trumpets regarding the new era that we entered some time around the start of the new millennium. Many articles and books have been written and many more will be written bringing pieces and parts of the vast array of endings and beginnings of the new era. The changes in the new era are far too extensive to address in one article or even one book.

2 – Revelation 1:17

3 – “261. The Final Judgment” (freedomarc.blog/2019/03/16/261-the-final-judgment)

Some general categories of significant change are:

- From the shadows of religious form and rituals to spiritual reality
- From dead religion to intimate spiritual relationship
- From studying about God to experiencing Him by the Spirit
- From knowing about God to intimately knowing Him and being known of Him
- From intellectually discerning the Bible to receiving revelation of the living written word by the Spirit
- From going to “church” to being the church (ekklesia)
- From a “church” growth emphasis to receiving the kingdom of God
- From striving to keep New Testament rules to living and walking in the Spirit
- From hoping to escape from the world to victoriously overcoming the world by the power of Christ in us by His Spirit
- From pastor-ruled clergy/laity “church” to gatherings under the headship of Christ by the Spirit with the spiritually mature ones (elders) training the immature
- From hierarchical “church” systems to relational apostolic networking
- From limiting spiritual function to a segment of our compartmentalized lifestyles to being led of the Spirit throughout every facet of our unified non-segmented lifestyles
- From an immature child of mixture (individually and as a corporate Body) to mature pure and holy sons of God, joint heirs with Christ Jesus
- From seeing the grace of God as a whitewash covering for our continued weakness and sinfulness to receiving the grace of God as empowerment to live holy lives
- From the beginning of wisdom in obedience by fear of God to the mature wisdom of experiencing the love of God
- From chasing after the things of God to resting in His presence and provision
- From a scattered people with spots of contamination and wrinkles of impurity to a pure and holy purified Body of Christ becoming the prepared Bride of Christ

This massive change is much more than a generational changing of the guard. It is in its final reality, the dissolving of the ways of life we have known and the coming of heaven’s ways of life. Great shaking will bare the foundations of life and expose their origin. Every area of life on earth must stand on the foundation of Christ Jesus. That which is built on the foundations will be built from the pattern of the rule of God from heaven.

Ultimately all human life and activity will be transformed including business, family, education, government, worship, and every facet of life. The cross of Christ – the precious shed blood of Jesus has purchased the redemption of the world. The resurrected Christ in whom is all the fullness of God, all authority, all power, all love, all wisdom, and all glory abiding in His holy people on earth is worthy and fully capable to complete the work of redemption of the world. Christ Jesus, the one through whom all things were created, came to earth sent of the Father to save the world.

Do not be discouraged when you see the crumbling and dissolution of the world around you. I have come to cleanse and renew My world and My people. Do not fear when the mountains fall and the seas roar as My pure and holy love invades the world of evil dissolving the vile from among the precious faithful of My choosing. Again, the heavens and the earth shall rejoice – Behold the Lamb in all His glory – My son in whom I am well pleased.”<sup>4</sup>

Laurence

(extract from a prophetic journal message on the 27-3-2019)

“You’re right to see sonship as the primary focus. This is essential. Nothing outside of our relationship together is more important. Why, you ask? You were created to be a son, so being reborn spiritually is your entrance, your adoption, into my family, but that’s only the beginning. Like a baby who’s born into the world has to grow up and eventually become an adult, participating in society, this is what it is like for you. It is strange to me that many who come into my family jump straight into my life giving no thought to the process of growth and development. I understand that they are not being taught this, but life mirrors spiritual life and it is patently obvious that a newborn or toddler can’t perform life as adults do. This has been a significant problem of the Christian religion. No more!

I am working with those who will work with me, to create an ‘army’ of sons who will be about my business on Earth. No more will I contend with the rebellion of those who call me “Father”. No more will I look for those who will comply with my wishes. It’s time that these ceased. In this season I am raising up an ‘army’ of workers for my Kingdom, like I did with Gideon. Many will be called and will marshal to be trained, but I will sift them to find those who are appropriately fit for the task ahead. No longer will I put up with complacency.

No longer will I suffer the rebellion of my people. Like the Jews who rebelled, I am working to sort out those who are really for me and those who are against me. True, they call me “Father” with their mouths, but their heart is far from me. They look to their own interests and to the interests of the system they belong to. The Kingdom is THE system that requires complete and total allegiance. Nothing is more important than this.

So, be prepared for my sifting to filter the ‘mob’. Many will be demobbed as I search their hearts and minds to see what their allegiances are. They will know that I have sifted them and they will know that they fail to measure up. However, in their heart-of-hearts they will ‘turn a blind eye’ to what they know and will pursue their own goals. Consequently, they will drift away in this era of my Kingdom. This will be a slow and gradual process as I take my hand off their lives [bit by bit].

Life comes from me. Real, genuine life comes from me and this is what they will lose. True, they will still live life in the natural, but the Kingdom life they see in others will become unattainable for them. This will be their choice, after all, it’s all about a matter of their heart attitude.

Today, I make it known that I will now measure a person solely on their heart. My grace is being restrained as it did with the Jews of old and the hearts of people will become manifest to a greater level. I am looking for compliance.

I am looking for those who will be prepared to or have already given everything up for me. These I will put my abundant life into. These sons, this small number of sons, will taste of the goodness of my Kingdom. By no means do I mean ‘small’ as in a few. By ‘small’ I mean compared to the number who consciously claim me as their God, the number is small in comparison. I want to make this clear: The number is large, but, like Gideon’s army the bulk of those who ‘put their hand up’ will not measure up. This is disappointing, but it is the way of humanity.

Today I call you to perfectly align with me in your heart and to display this in the way you live. I will give you days of life on earth because this is my good pleasure to do so, but your days must be mine. By that I mean, you are to learn to live for me – me only. My Son demonstrated this when he was on Earth and he is your model. Model yourself after him in his attitudes and relationship with me.”<sup>5</sup>

Amanda Shiflett

(extract from a prophetic message on the 23-4-2019)

“Many things not built on His rule and His kingdom, but on the kingdoms of man and on their thoughts and plans, will be brought down. This will happen in His church more than any other mountain, although it will happen in many other spheres of influence.

The Lord is getting ready to begin a reconstruction of much of His house! He will take many structures down to the studs, and others down to the foundation, before He begins to build again. Some things have been tolerated by the Lord for some time, but they were not His plan, and they are no longer serving His purpose, and some never did. Some were the traditions of men, and although many were fine and good in their own way, some were not, and they have become a stumbling block to His ultimate purpose for His ekklesia. These things will need to be brought down, as they are hindering the flow of His Spirit. If they are not brought down by leadership, the Lord Himself will deal with them and bring them down.

It is time for His Spirit to flow freely once again. If He has to tear everything down, and start again with just the foundation, then He will. Other structures within the kingdom are faulty even down to the foundation, and they will be completely brought to the ground.

The plumbline of the Lord will be released in His house, and everything that does not line up with His structure and His purposes will be brought down or reconstructed by Him.

Many churches and ministries will falter, and some even fall apart this year and over the next several years, but this is not for utter destruction, but simply so He can rebuild according to His plans. For those who must go through this...do not get discouraged if you are one of these. Do not give up hope or vision.

The Lord is shaking everything out into the open, that it may be dealt with, and that His purposes may be revealed in and through His church. There are some things that have been compromised, but He is giving an opportunity for those things to be corrected, reconstructed properly and set in place according to His blueprints. Only those who will not surrender to His will and His reconstruction will be brought to ruin, but that is never His purpose. His purpose is for reconstruction and restoring, if they will repent, surrender and allow Him to do the work in them and their ministries.

Now is the time for the shaking and rebuilding that has begun to come to a pinnacle. He is doing a new thing, and His new wine cannot be contained in old wineskins, so we must embrace all that the Lord has purposed to do in this new era!”<sup>6</sup>

Wanda Alger

(extract from a prophetic message on the 12-4-2019)

“There is a rising group of men and women of God who have been hidden but have been prepared for a mission. They are being called by the Spirit of God to prepare a future generation of kingdom ambassadors who are going to shift culture and transform the earth. Because of the call on their lives, their journey has not been about them, but those following them. The Lord is calling forth history makers who carry a burden for family and a vision for kingdom expansion. There are many in this season who are being called as spiritual fathers and mothers to raise up sons and daughters and plant the seeds for emerging nations. If this is you, the Lord is saying, “Don't look for your own platform; you are to be a platform for others”.

In a day when many seek platforms for their ministry to grow and venues for their voice to be heard, the Lord is raising up men and women of God who have the faith of Abraham to contend for a future generation. These are men and women with a God-given passion, zeal and prophetic burden for their posterity—their sons and daughters after them. These are present-day “saints of old” to whom heaven is drawing, empowering and granting increased favor in order to establish a legacy so secure and a generation so powerful, nothing will stop the increase of His government on the earth...

The prophesied sons and daughters who are now emerging in this generation<sup>7</sup> cannot mature and develop apart from spiritual fathers and mothers who nurture and disciple them. Beyond academic training and ministry development, it is the heart of fathers and mothers to build character from the inside out. They are the ones who walk alongside these future change agents through the various seasons of life to impart the grace, perspective and needed wisdom to withstand the coming storms. It is these patriarchs and matriarchs whom heaven is calling forth with a vision beyond themselves to disciple entire nations... ”<sup>8</sup>

Dawn Hill

(extract from a prophetic message on the 11-4-2019)

“In the past four years, God has been teaching me more and more about how to draw closer to Him when it seemed easier to retreat in times of personal warfare. I can remember in 2015, standing in my garage and crying out to the Lord during a very dark time. Seasons and situations come like this and instead of reacting, we as the Bride of Christ must learn to respond. Not only that, but we must run toward intimacy with Him, and not for vindication or the entangling web of bitterness. You will find out where you are in your personal relationship with God by where you run when hell rages and flesh manifests.

One of the greatest genes of the Father that we must have ingrained in our spiritual DNA as sons of God is forgiveness. We are repeatedly instructed to forgive and to not grow bitter...

Forgiveness is freedom. One thing I am learning in my walk with the Lord is that I cannot afford to be intimate with unforgiveness. It is a redirection of affection that should be surrendered to God. Intimacy with Christ is not simply in the times when all is well. It is also in the times when you have to speak by faith, "It is well... "

This is part of the Good News. Jesus has given us a New Covenant, and part of the covenant calls us higher into His ways. Intimacy is the high call, and in order to demonstrate true and pure intimacy with Him, we live out what we have heard in the secret place.

Are you hearing retribution in the secret place? Are you hearing retaliation in the secret place? In all humility, I pose this statement: Things like this are not found in the secret place but in the secret places of our hearts, where the light of Christ is to illuminate and push back darkness so healing can come...

As I personally go through seasons that would be better with a convenient fast-forward button, there are lessons in the difficult times. The lessons come in the growth of asking God to examine my heart and to bend to His ways. The relationship grows when we run toward and not away from Him.

When you are truly intimate with God, things are exposed that need exposing. In those moments, areas of brokenness are made whole, and pruning can come forth. We must allow God to not only cut the branch of bitterness if it is there, but to strip it out at the root. We yield to the digging up of even a seed of resentment, because once that seed dies, something begins to grow and soon, we die spiritually.

Beloved, run to the Bridegroom in every season. Let the weight of glorious intimacy with Him mark you. I believe part of the cleansing needed in the body of Christ is a deluge of forgiveness of others and of self.”<sup>9</sup>

OPPOSITIONAL NOTES

Jonathan van Maren

(extract from a blog article on the 11-4-2019)

"[T]he declining influence of Christianity on American politics—something that is enthusiastically heralded by progressives—is no cause for celebration. The post-religious Right will be nastier and have a far greater tendency to nativism unhampered by the demands of Christian charity, and the dissolution of Christian moral constraints on both the Left and the Right will give rise to a politics of raw power with a greater emphasis on 'us versus them'. As Ross Douthat put it in the New York Times, religious conservatives "actually tried minority outreach, it sent billions to fight AIDS in Africa, it pursued criminal justice reform in the states". But because of "trends toward secularization and individualism", that Religious Right is disappearing—but "without the pull of transcendence, the future of the right promises to be tribal, cruel, and very dark indeed".

In short, a post-Christian America will be a meaner, more polarized, less charitable, and unhappier place. As many before me have already pointed out, many of America's current struggles have their roots in this growing spiritual vacuum, and these worrisome trends indicate that these struggles will only increase in the years ahead. That vacuum will be filled, and we may not like what will come in to replace the Christianity spurned by the descendants of those who treasured it. For as G.K. Chesterton once purportedly said, "When Man ceases to worship God he does not worship nothing, but worships everything"."<sup>10</sup>

Example: One Type of Christian that Attacks will come from

"The most recent case in point is Democratic presidential candidate and South Bend, Indiana mayor, Pete Buttigieg. At a recent fundraiser, he said of his same-sex "marriage": "[it] has made me a better man [and]...moved me closer to God. If being gay was a choice, it was a choice that was made far above my pay grade."

He then added, somewhat out-of-the-blue: "That's the thing I wish the Mike Pences of the world would understand, that if you have a problem with who I am, your problem is not with me. Your quarrel, sir, is with my creator."...

Unsurprisingly, the secular press has claimed that this new culturally-conformed Christianity as articulated by Mayor Pete will, of course, win the day. Terry Mattingly at Get Religion noted USA Today's almost "evangelistic tone" in reporting Buttigieg's words, and how they wrote as if the mayor's reading of the Bible is a defensible theological position.

The reality, of course, is that the mayor's quarrel isn't with Mike Pence. His quarrel is with the clear texts of Scripture that both identify what marriage is and what it is for, as well as how homosexual behavior is sinful. His quarrel is with natural law, reflected in the biological roles our bodies play and the universally embraced connection of marriage and procreation, even by societies not influenced by Christian morality. And of course, his quarrel is with 2,000 years of unanimous Christian witness on marriage and sexual morality.

As Everett Piper wrote at the Washington Times in reply to Mayor Pete, we don't get to make up our own version of Christianity. The faith delivered once for all is a faith delivered—it was delivered to the saints. It's a revealed faith. The religions we make up based on our feelings are different religions altogether.

Buttigieg may feel that his same-sex relationship has somehow brought him closer to God, but it has not. "If you love me", Jesus says in John 14:15, "you will keep my commandments". Now, gay people aren't singled out by Jesus' words here, but they are absolutely included.

And to be clear, Mike Pence's feelings on the issue aren't of any more authority than Mayor Pete's feelings. No, this decision was made way above either man's pay grade."<sup>11</sup>

Jeremiah Johnson

(extract from a blog article on the 25-4-2019)

The Kingdom prophets and prophetically gifted saints who have come out of the Christian religion will find this type of prophetic voice our strongest opposition. (Read below) Sounds perfect, but what is the foundation of the speaker.

These focus on revival in the church and the all-sufficiency of the Bible. We focus on the Trinity and hearing directly from the throne. Therefore, they will not approve of us. We will be opposed as heretics, “sheep in wolves clothing” and false prophets, because our truth comes from the Truth himself, not the Bible.

We need to be prepared for this type of attack and rely on the King to be our justifier and judge. All we must do is focus on speaking the words of the King and demonstrating his Kingdom.

“God is raising up end time prophetic messengers who will proclaim Jesus Christ and all of His glory to the ends of the earth. Even now, these lovesick forerunners are preparing the bride to meet their bridegroom King. The Word of God burns inside of them like fire in their bones that they cannot contain. They are daily experiencing intimate encounters with the Son of God as they sit with Him and learn how to meditate upon His Word day and night.

These sons and daughters will help usher in revival to the church, centered upon the knowledge of God and encountering the person of Jesus. This company of burning and shining lamps will devour the Word of God. They will say "yes" to fresh encounters on the road to Emmaus where the unveiling of Christ will be made known to them through the Law, the Psalms, the Prophets and the New Testament. As these prophetic messengers learn to walk the road to Emmaus, they will continually invite others to join them on this incredible pursuit for the truth that can only be found in God's Word.”<sup>12</sup>
