

Time for Frugal Living

(Prophetic message 24-9-2019)

Question: Lord, you gave us an impression in our spirit that we need to be more frugal and more thrifty with our finance and resources in preparation for the future. Please give us more information so we can implement this properly?

Message #1

“Haven’t you heard my warnings that the future is dark? This impression that I gave you is in preparation for that future. I always prepare my people for what is coming. Those who listen are safe. Those who listen are well-prepared. Those who listen avoid pitfalls and trouble. So I give you this message today because I want to prepare you. Times will be hard, so hard that the young generation who has never seen difficulty will be struck dumbfounded by what happens. These events have happened in the past, but because of a time of prosperity since the middle of last century, the people of Western civilization have been lulled into a sense of false security. They may see things going on in society and in the world that they think are disastrous, but the time that is coming is greater than these – greater than the famine of Ireland, greater than the effects of the Second World War. These events are coming as the kingdoms clash.

So, my message to you is to prepare. You have no idea of the timeline, so you must begin now to be more wise in the way you handle your finances and your resources. Now, it’s not about saving money and storing it in the bank. It’s about using the income that comes in for Kingdom purposes. Forget about yourselves, forget about your desires and your wants. Your focus must be on meeting your needs and the needs of others, and the expansion of my Kingdom on the Earth.

This is not a time to ‘tighten your belt’ and cease being liberal in the way you give finances, time, and energy to others. I have called my people to be extravagant givers because I am extravagant in what I do for them. Think before you spend your money. Analyse how you use your resources (the things that you possess, the things that you own). Think about down-sizing. Think about reducing your expenditure and using it more for others. There is much you can do, but it has to become a mindset for you so that you can teach the young ones of the future how to be wise. The mindset these days in your society of wanting everything and everything new and everything now, and using credit cards and borrowing, to provide what they want, is a recipe for disaster. Just look at what happened with the last financial crisis.<sup>1</sup>

You [do]<sup>2</sup> need reserves to buffer yourselves. I am not saying give away everything, and live a pauper’s life. What I want you to do is listen to me. Surrender your finances and your possessions to me, out of love for me, and a desire to please me, and allow me to show you how to use them. This is not a call for a Spartan lifestyle. It’s a warning to prepare. Start now. Spend less. Give more. Use more wisely.

This is preparation for what can come and what may come. This is because the spiritual climate in this nation is dependent on where my people are in alignment with me. If this nation is to ride through what is coming, rather than to be crushed, my people need to align with me, to partner with me in their lives and in their families and in this nation. Together, we can achieve everything. But, if you continue to go your own way, if you continue to work against me, to be defiant and do your own thing, your lives and this nation will pay the penalty of being out of alignment with me. Now, that’s a very simple fact, but it’s a hard thing to bring about. Alignment with me in the way you think, the desire to be about my business and to see my plans fulfilled, is your absolute total responsibility. You have free choice. You have autonomy as sons of the Most High God.

So I call on you today, surrender yourselves to the service of my Kingdom, and allow me to guide you. If you do, I will train you in how to be wise with your finances and resources, and you will be able to teach others so that they can survive and do well in what’s ahead.”

Message #2

“My people, I warn you of the things to come because my heart to you is one of love. I want to encourage you. As you go through difficult times, I am always encouraging you. Sure, I am testing you, but my testing is to produce good fruit in you. I am love. I don't have love: I am love. And out of that love, that strong love for you, I am making known to you the things to come. I don't tell you everything. I release what is essential for you and necessary for you. Rely on me for all information. All knowledge is in me, and I am pleased to pass it on to you. I will not hold back. If I deem it essential, I will release to you the knowledge that you need for daily living and to prepare for the future.

Yes, there is darkness in the future, but there is also light. I have advised you of this on many occasions. As darkness grows darker, it will be because my light, the light in my people, the light of my Kingdom on the Earth is growing brighter. And, of course, light will overcome darkness. Remember that.

You are in a significant period of time in history. It would be a good thing to consider it an honour to be alive today. If you take that attitude, you will have a better approach to what's ahead. Don't think on the negative. Think on me. Think on the things of my Kingdom because they are always positive.

Drink. Drink of my Living Water. I have advised you that this is essential. You must learn to do this, to be refreshed and strengthened and stabilised for every day. It's a daily requirement that you drink of my Living Water, and this is drinking of me in my presence. It is no other technique that you may have been taught. Life is in me, and so is the Living Water and the Living Bread, the sustenance you need. Everything is in me. You must get to the point where I am everything to you. This may sound like a selfish thing, but it's a spiritual reality. You were created that way, not just to rely on me, but to be one with me, and you can only be one with me if everything is drawn from me, your desire is towards me and for me, and your love for me includes [love for]<sup>3</sup> all my plans and all my purposes.

You see, we're in a partnership, and if you're in it for the long haul, that partnership has easy times and difficult times, and you have to learn to enjoy both. It's human nature to be dissatisfied when things are not as they are desired to be. But in my Kingdom, your desire should be whatever I desire. Change your attitude. Change your mind. Align with my thinking and you will see a massive change in your attitude. And, you will find that life on Earth with me is an adventure, and that adventure, by the way, does not end in disaster. My adventures have eternal purposes, and they are for the good of the Kingdom.

Give me your life – all of it. Allow me to use you in partnership, to expand my Kingdom (as was prophesied), so that it fills the whole Earth. The benefits for the future generations far exceed your imagination, so take heart, I have given you warning in preparation. Don't see it as negative. See it as a call to action.”

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. New members are being identified and trained all the time. Our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. Our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. Our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia. Since 2017 CCOP has been expanded to function as a network of prophetic voices.
