

How to Be Content in the Kingdom

Strange question, but as you have read about Jesus' life in the Kingdom, it's definitely not 'all beer and skittles'. If you fully commit yourself to the Kingdom and focus on being about Father's business, and allow the King to do anything with your life, you'll undergo an apprenticeship. This training for sonship is hard work and contains a considerable amount of discipline as you are reprogrammed from what society has put into you. This produces a lot of angst in the trainee as the soul, mind and will resists the King's molding and shaping through the processes he puts them through. The very real consequence of the pressure is to give up.

So, how can a person make it easier on themselves as they go through chagrin of apprenticeship?

Here's a few tips from my limited experience. They're mainly about attitude, allowing your spirit to be in charge and not allowing the soul to have any control.

1. Kingdom life has nothing to do with hyper-excitement
2. Kingdom life is not what you get out of the Kingdom
3. Love 'the presence'
4. Host the King's presence
5. Drink of the Living Water every day
6. Draw everything from Heaven's supply through the Kingdom
7. Desire to be changed because when you're changed you'll be more at peace
8. No regrets
9. No disappointments
10. Be thankful at all times
11. Enjoy 'the ride' through your Kingdom life
12. Enjoy the process you're going through
13. Surrender yourself totally to the King and his will for his Kingdom
14. Trust & rest in the Trinity's abilities
15. Learn to relax at all times as you trust & rest in the Trinity

These may seem too hard to achieve, but this is what I've been able to achieve over a 5-year period. It can be done.

And...there's so much more, with a great many advantages for Kingdom life.
