

Learning to Operate as a Son Should Function

[Report #3]

As I journey down my path of many processes to become a more mature son, I have been reporting on what is happening to me.

In report #1¹ I shared how scary it was to have all religious props removed as I learnt to life normally, naturally and spiritually at the same time.

In report #2² I shared how scary it was not to make requests at the start of the day that I used to make to ensure that may day went well and that it was brought into alignment with the plans of Heaven. Now It happens because my King knows what I need for the day without me having to ask. Even praying for safety is all part of, “Focus on the Kingdom and every need will be supplied”.

In this report I want to outline what’s happened with my morning time of drinking of the Living Water³.

In 2013 we were advised by Holy Spirit, through the vision of the current Kingdom era that Rick Joyner had, that it is essential for our spiritual life and stability to drink of the Living Water every day. For example:

*“You must also have the living water. You must never let it out of your sight again. You must drink from it as soon as you begin to thirst. Even drink when you are not thirsty when you can. It will keep you alive. Staying close to it will help keep you on the path.”*⁴

*“It is those who are dying daily that are the most alive. This living water is the sweetest to them and the most powerful. Death is the path to true life, and dying to self is how we stay on the path of life.”*⁵

“You must always stay close to the living waters, and they are always flowing, but here they are not on the surface. As you go into higher places like this you will often have to dig for the living water. The higher you go the deeper you may have to dig for them, but they will be near you. They will always be close to the path you are to walk,” he added.”⁶

*“One other thing about your relationship to these younger ones—I can see that just talking about this is awakening you. That’s the living waters flowing in your heart. These living waters can only come out of our innermost being, our deepest heart desire. Our deepest heart desire touches what we were created for. When you touch that purpose, you open a well of living water in your heart. We’re following the living water here because it will lead us to the mountain. Follow the living water that flows from your heart the same way.”*⁷

I have been practising drinking of the Living water every morning ever since I read “The Path”. It has made an amazing difference to my mornings and to the entirety of my days.

When I was given the revelation of the Internal Kingdom⁸ I began to desire to know more about it. I learnt that the “Fullness of Christ”⁹, “Christ in us”¹⁰ and “the Life of Christ”¹¹ are all pointing to the essence of our sonship. Our life is all about the life of the Trinity that's available to us because Holy Spirit is inside of us. This was made very clear in a recent CCOP message.¹²

Then I was given the revelation that we need to 'host' the King. This meant that I carried him with me everywhere and that his life would impact mine by taking it over. This is what the Internal Kingdom is, and from this I learnt to operate out of there.

Following that I learnt that the Kingdom was supposed to meet all my needs: emotional, mental, physical, spiritual, emotional, financial, relational and love needs. I began to go into the Internal Kingdom and allow my King to meet any of those needs when they came up during each day. I am still learning to do this more effectively and as a normal practice in my life.

This brings me to where I am now with my thirds report.

I came to the realisation that drinking of the Living Water and feasting on the Living Bread¹³ is really drawing from the Kingdom life within me. I had been drinking and feasting every morning, that is, both spiritually and doing a physical motion at the same time. The physical part was to train myself to focus on the spiritual so I would allow it to occur. Occur it did, as my spirit would attest to each morning.

As of this week I'm drawing life from the King, from the Internal Kingdom, instead of going through the physical motions that I used initially for imprinting. As I do it I get the same spiritual refreshment and energising, even though it was scary (in a minor way) to stop doing the actions. The fear of stopping comes from knowing that I've failed in the past when I stopped doing something and I lost the spiritual benefit it was supplying. Now, NO MORE FEAR.

Learning to live normally and naturally as a spiritual person, just like Jesus and Adam (originally), requires me to operate with total trust in the Trinity that they know what they are doing with me and that they won't fail me. I also have to trust myself that I won't falter or fail as I give up every religious activity and crutch that I used to prop up my spiritual life with. The religious spirit will always try to condemn me which I eliminate more religious activity because I gave it access during my time in the church system.

Conclusion: It works. So, when you get a revelation in your spirit that you have to do something, go with it completely.
