

Heaven is the Only Source of Pure Truth

If Jesus is the source of all truth, why is it that we operate in and believe so much untruth?

If Christianity provides pure truth, with Heaven as its source, why do Christians have so little of the truth Heaven has available to us?

Before I begin to answer these questions, please be aware that I was born into the church system 70 years ago. My father was a lay preacher in my early days and then became a Uniting Church minister. I moved to the Pentecostal system in the 1980s, spent 10 years in the Charismatic system and am now completely out of the church system altogether – our King told me to leave so I could enter my destiny. I used to be a Bible teacher, but no longer, as I am now a Kingdom teacher being schooled by the King himself.

The reason is that we aren't taught from Heaven, we're taught from a book and from the pulpit. Jesus the Son IS the truth and all truth only comes from him via what he tells us. This is why all of us need to hear from him very clearly, all the time. That's what he wants for everyone, not just me.

Here's a little of what I've been taught (see the list below). You may not agree with everything in my teachings, but that's because you're most likely filtering it through what you've been taught, or what you think the Bible says.

It'll take a paradigm shift for you to allow the King to school you through Holy Spirit. However, that'll take a decision on your part to allow yourself to be open to let him do it.

So, read on.
