

'The Strangest Secret' from a Kingdom Perspective

If you are free from religion, you can allow the Spirit to communicate with you any way he likes. This becomes an exciting time because he uses anything to speak to you – especially if you're not listening intently to his Spirit-to-spirit method. He will even use secular movies, newspapers, billboards, modern music, to name just a few.

Here's one secular radio show from a by-gone era which I happened to listen to on YouTube:

- AUDIO: "The Strangest Secret by Earl Nightingale" (Earl Nightingale) [0:25-8:00]
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NbBHR_CD56M

As I listened to it I got these points:

1. People don't think (they drift along)
2. People flow with the crowd
3. People don't know why they do things
4. People become what they think about
5. Without a goal people don't go anywhere
6. Most people won't achieve their dream

I got these two Kingdom understandings and reinforcements as an accumulation as Holy Spirit touched my spirit with the above points:

- We have to work hard on our life in the Kingdom, it's not a leisurely stroll.
- We must think about and focus on the King and the Kingdom

Life in society has taught us to function in certain ways and we have to ditch them so we can align with the King. It's hard work being a son, because we are going against culture and religion. To succeed we must make our destiny our Kingdom destiny, our future the King's future for us, our identity our sonship, and so forth. This diametrically opposed attitude is required to enable us to row upstream against the current of culture and religion.

If we become whatever we think about in our heart, then we are opening doors in the spirit realm for that thing to impact our lives in a major way. This is a direct result of being created with autonomy as Heaven's representatives on Earth and as planet managers. Human's spiritual status is being a little lower than the elohim, and we are responsible for how we use it. We are impacted by the spirit realm's influences without knowing it, which is why we must steadfastly focus on the Trinity and our work in partnership with them, otherwise we drift off, cutting off their influence of us.

The strangest secret of all is: Everything is found in the King who lives within us through his Spirit.

CHALLENGE: Listen to Earl Nightingale's talk using the link above and see what the Spirit impresses upon you.
