

Certainty Comes From The Internal Kingdom

If we live out of the Internal Kingdom, where the King resides, living in intimacy and oneness, radical things start to happen.

One of the things I've experienced is certainty in my life. As I trust, rest and relax in the Trinity's work in overseeing my life, I no longer suffer from uncertainty. As I live each day as they bring it to me and plan according to the plans they give me, I don't have any wavering about my future. This isn't positive thinking or fatalism, it's complete trust in them, knowing they have the best future for me. Admittedly, I had to change from wanting to direct my life to having them to do it (not an easy transition), but it's proved to be wonderful.

Having my spirit completely in charge of my being is one of the things I'm focussing on right now, because my soul and my mind are working against the spirit quite often.

Here's a reminder from our King to allow him to lead, so we have certainty in our lives in the midst of the chaos around us in the world:

“Your uncertainty does not reflect My heart. I am never uncertain. I know the beginning and the end and everything in between. And I call you to be in the spiritual place where you trust so completely in My ability to lead and guide you that you are not uncertain either. Your natural mind wants to worry, but your spirit, grounded in Me, will choose to trust. Be strong and unwavering.”<sup>1</sup>
