

More About This New Era of the Kingdom

[Relevant extracts from a prophetic article by Neville Johnson published in January 2019]

“Well, here we are again at the beginning of another new year.

However this year is not just another year. There are points in time which stand out more than others.

There are seasons within seasons. There are epochs or ages which mark such times as the birth and death of Jesus, the fall of Jerusalem, the reformation etc.

There are seasons within seasons which are important like specific years in a decade...

[I]n this new and last season persecution will trigger a collapse, causing denominations to begin to dissolve into a people of the Kingdom of God.

This will be of God’s doing. There will now be a period of removing the tares from the church.¹

This must happen before the harvest begins.

We are now moving from the Church Age to the Kingdom Age.

The ramifications of this are far reaching. On the 26th December 2018 I had an encounter with the LORD and one of his saints i.e. cloud of witnesses, in which I was given some insight into this new era.

This is the last era, i.e. period of time before the return of the LORD.

This said, we must understand that time is now limited and is running out. Now when major time seasons come to an end we must be aware of the implications.

First there are aspects of the old that must not come over into the new. When a baby is born the umbilical cord must be cut off.

While the umbilical cord was instrumental in nourishing the baby it cannot stay connected to the mother it must be severed.

The American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists has become one of the latest to advise medical professionals to wait at least 30 to 60 seconds before clamping and cutting.

Throughout a pregnancy, the umbilical cord carries important nutrients and blood from the mother to the baby. If the cord is not cut off there is a very real chance of infection as the placenta begins to rot.

So it is as we move on into a new era, much of the old must not come over in to the new.

There is much in the old season that will not work in this new season...

The rise of true Kingdom Power and Authority will begin to escalate. Kingdom health will start to prevail in many.

The season of trials will emerge into great blessings just as winter gives way to springtime. True Josephs will come out of prison.

That which has been built on the sand will disappear and that which has been built on the rock, the teachings of Jesus, will stand the coming storms.

In this new season kingdom love will release kingdom faith, authority, wealth, and revelation.

The awaking of the kingdom within you will bring a tsunami of revelation and understanding.

1 – Matthew 13:24-30

The parables of the Kingdom will also bring revelation, understanding and insights into this Kingdom age.

Many who have run their course will be taken home in this new season. It is graduation time for many who have run their race and have kept the faith.”²

This is further confirmation of what we have been shown about this new era of the Kingdom.³

DISCLAIMER: We have learnt that a person’s theologies influence their prophetic writings and talks. That’s why not every thing Neville says or writes in the items I’ve referenced aligns with the current realities of the Kingdom and the ekklesia. So please look past his extrapolation of scripture to today, his futuristic eschatology and his Israel-centric mindset when you read his full article online.
